App. Case No. 2026-000049
25th Avenue LLC, Respondent v. Carol Ann Honeycutt, appellant

Dear Clerk Smith,

Yesterday I forwarded to you the response to your letter of March 2, 2026. The response to your letter had attached to it all the documentation you requested to be sent to the respondent for the order of the transcripts. The respondent was copied in on the letter and the documents.

This fulfilled the requirements of your letter of March 2, 2026.

When I received the stamped copy back from the appellate court, only the attachments were stamped. My letter to you was not stamped.

In checking this afternoon the Case No. 2026-000049, I just found that neither the letter nor the documents sent yesterday were filed on the Index.

So, I am resending the letter to you first, and then the letter with the attachment transcript documents attached.

Please see that these are stamped and filed and send an email to confirm that.

Thank you,

Carol Ann Honeycutt

Dear Ms. Honeycutt,

I have had a chance to look and I was in a jury trial that week and only until the 22nd.

I was not working the 23rd or 24th, so it was not me.
