SC Court of Appeals

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In the Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM ANDERSON COUNTY
Court of General Sessions

R. Lawton McIntosh, Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2025-001295

THE STATE,

Respondent,

v.

CARLES BRANDON SCRUGGS,

Appellant.

RETURN TO SUBSEQUENT MOTION FOR APPEAL BOND

On March 12, 2026, Carles Brandon Scruggs filed his Motion to Suspend House Arrest, which for all intents and purposes is nothing more than a second motion for an appeal bond filed with this Court and Scruggs's fifth attempt to secure an appeal bond in this case. For similar reasons to what the State presented in its Return in Opposition to Motion for Appeal Bond, this Court should deny Scruggs's latest motion.

I.

In April of 2022, Scruggs—who was previously convicted of the violent felony offense of armed robbery and, thus, prohibited from possessing firearms or ammunition pursuant to section 16-23-500 of the South Carolina Code—was arrested after a large quantity of firearms and ammunition was found during a search of his residence.¹ Between August 2022 and November 2024, an Anderson County grand jury indicted Scruggs for thirty-eight counts of possession of a firearm or ammunition by a person convicted of a violent offense along with one count of unlawful possession of a sawed-off shotgun.²

On June 16, 2025, Scruggs proceeded to a jury trial on the unlawful possession of a sawed-off shotgun charge and twenty-six or twenty-seven³ of the possession of a firearm or ammunition by a person convicted of a violent offense charges before the Honorable R. Lawton McIntosh. At the conclusion of the three-day trial, the jury convicted Scruggs of all charges.

Following the verdict, the trial court sentenced Scruggs to ten years' imprisonment for unlawful possession of a sawed-off shotgun, which was suspended to eighteen months' imprisonment to be followed by forty-two months of home incarceration and five years of probation. Meanwhile, for each of the possession of a firearm or ammunition by a person convicted of a violent offense convictions, the trial court imposed a concurrent term of imprisonment of five years, and each of those sentences was suspended to an eighteen-month term of imprisonment to be followed by five years of probation. Thus, based on the sentences imposed, Scruggs was required to serve concurrent incarcerative terms of imprisonment of eighteen months with the remainder of his sentence either suspended to a probationary term or limited to home incarceration with a probationary term to follow.⁴ Furthermore, as part of the sentence, the trial court issued a permanent restraining order prohibiting Scruggs from having any direct or indirect contact with one of his neighbors, Misty Poole, or going onto Poole's property. Beyond that, the trial court ordered Scruggs to complete 540 hours of public service in total during the probationary portion of his sentence.

² Copies of the indictments have been included with the State's return as Attachment "B."

³ There appear to be some inconsistencies in the trial transcript regarding the specific number of offenses for which Scruggs was ultimately tried. Toward the outset of trial, the trial court advised the prospective jurors there were twenty-seven total charges. (Full Jun. 16 Trl. Tr. p. 23). However, before the case was submitted to the jury later on, the trial court advised the jurors there were twenty-eight total charges. (Jun. 18 Trl. Tr. p. 137). Subsequently, after the jury returned with a verdict, the trial court stated Scruggs had been convicted of twenty-eight total offenses, and he later imposed sentences for twenty-eight convictions. (Jun. 18 Trl. Tr. pp. 174-175; pp. 188-190).

II.

Shortly after Scruggs had been sentenced, defense counsel—at Scruggs's request—asked the trial court to grant an appeal bond, which constituted Scruggs's first motion seeking such relief. In response, the trial court swiftly denied the motion. However, the trial court further advised defense counsel it could be renewed and indicated "[w]e'll look at it again in 10 days" if it was, in fact, renewed. (Jun. 18 Trl. Tr. p. 191).

III.

Subsequent to that and prior to seeking the grant of an appeal bond from this Court, Scruggs again sought the exact same relief from the trial court and moved for an appeal bond for a second time.⁵ In response to that renewed motion, the trial court conducted a hearing on the matter on December 10, 2025, in the Anderson County Court of General Sessions.⁶ During that hearing, Scruggs—much like he is contending now—argued to the trial court the gun that led to the conviction for unlawful possession of a sawed-off shotgun constituted a legal shotgun pistol and, therefore, he did not see how that conviction "even remotely ha[d] a chance of standing up on appeal[.]" (Post-Trl. Tr. pp. 5-6). Likewise, Scruggs—again like he is currently now maintaining—argued he would not be able to get the time he served back "if his conviction's reversed[.]" (Post-Trl. Tr. pp. 6-7).

In response to those arguments, the trial court expressed a willingness to grant an appeal bond if Scruggs agreed to a bond condition precluding him from going back to the residence where the firearms were discovered. (Post-Trl. Tr. pp. 9-10; p. 12). Significantly, the trial court believed such a condition was critical because Scruggs had been "a total menace" to his neighbors, which was what led to the issuance of the permanent restraining order barring any contact with Poole. (Post-Trl. Tr. p. 7; pp. 9-10; p. 13; Sentencing Sheets). Based on that, the trial court offered Scruggs an opportunity to identify "a good place for him to stay" while released on bond that would not be close to the neighbors he had been menacing. (Post-Trl. Tr. pp. 10-12). Ultimately though, Scruggs expressed an intention to remain in the area where the incident occurred if released, and, resultantly, the trial court issued an order denying the request for an appeal bond.⁷ (Post-Trl. Tr. p. 12; Dec. 2025 Order).

⁶ A copy of the transcript from the appeal bond hearing has been included with the State's return as Attachment "F."

⁷ A copy of the written order denying Scruggs's appeal bond motion has been included with the State's return as Attachment "G."

IV.

On January 14, 2026, Scruggs filed a motion seeking for this Court to grant him an appeal bond,⁸ which constituted his third appeal bond motion in this matter. In seeking such relief, Scruggs appeared to argue his appeal bond should be granted because, "as a matter of law," he purportedly could not have been validly convicted of one of his many, many offenses due to his belief a single firearm out of the cache of firearms connected to his case did not actually constitute a sawed-off shotgun. Meanwhile, through his motion, Scruggs did not even attempt to identify a basis—viable or otherwise—upon which he intended to challenge his other twenty-six convictions, but he did note the State "will not be able to give back" the time he will have served on those convictions if he was not granted an appeal bond and then later somehow obtains reversal on some not-yet-identified ground.

V.

On February 3, 2026, this Court issued its order on Scruggs's Motion for Appeal Bond.⁹ In its Order, this Court provided a short procedural history, including that the trial court heard Scruggs's motion for an appeal bond. This Court noted that the "trial court expressed a willingness to grant an appeal bond if Scruggs could identify a place where he could reside that was not close to the neighbor from whom he was restrained." This Court stated Scruggs was unable to identify such a place for the trial court and the trial court denied his motion. This Court then expressly denied Scruggs's Motion for Appeal Bond filed with this Court and did not in any conceivable way defer judgment to the trial court.

⁸ A copy of Scruggs's Motion for Appeal Bond has been included with the State's Return as Attachment "H."

⁹ A copy of this Court's Order has been included with the State's Return as Attachment "I."

VI.

On February 20, 2026, Scruggs's counsel sent an email¹⁰ to the trial court in which he asserted, without any support and blatantly contrary to this Court's Order, that this Court "deferred to [the trial court's] judgment in denying bond without special considerations as to where [Scruggs] would live." In the email, Scruggs's counsel asserted that Scruggs now had somewhere to live that was over five miles away from Poole. Scruggs's counsel inquired whether this would be sufficiently far enough away to be satisfactory. Functionally, this email constituted Scruggs's fourth request for an appeal bond in this matter.

The State responded¹¹ to Scruggs's counsel's email, stating that this Court's order denied his Motion for Appeal Bond and did not send it back to the trial court.

As of the date this Return was filed, the trial court has not responded to either email.

VII.

On March 11, 2026, Scruggs filed a Motion to Suspend House Arrest with this Court, which amounts to yet another attempt to secure an appeal bond, his fifth attempt during the pendency of this case. In his motion, Scruggs seeks a suspension of the house arrest portion of his sentence for possession of a sawed-off shotgun. Just as in his first motion for an appeal bond to this Court, Scruggs appears to argue his appeal bond should be granted because, "as a matter of law," he purportedly could not have been validly convicted of possession of a sawed-off shotgun. He based this argument on testimony that another individual owned the weapon in question and that the weapon did not meet his understanding of the relevant statutory provision.

¹⁰ A copy of Scruggs's counsel's email, which the State was copied on, has been included with the State's Return as Attachment "J."

¹¹ A copy of the State's response email has been included with the State's Return as Attachment "K."

Also like in his first motion to this Court, Scruggs notes the State will not be able to give back the time he will have served in home detention on those convictions nor the fees he will have paid for home detention if he is not granted an appeal bond and then later obtains reversal.

VIII.

Pursuant to South Carolina law, a criminal defendant "may" potentially be granted bail during the pendency of an appeal following a conviction. S.C. Code Ann. § 18-1-90. Importantly though, a defendant has no right to an appeal bond, and a court ordinarily will only issue one with "extreme caution." Nichols v. Patterson, 202 S.C. 352, ___, 25 S.E.2d 155, 156 (1943) (citation and internal quotations omitted). When deciding whether to exercise the discretion to grant an appeal bond, a court should consider the following factors: (1) the probability of success on appeal; (2) the nature and seriousness of the criminal offense committed; (3) the danger the defendant may pose to the community if he or she is released; (4) the likelihood the defendant may forfeit bail or flee if released; (5) the character and circumstances of the defendant; and (6) the defendant's "personal attitude toward society and government." Id.

IX.

When considering those factors, this Court—just as the trial court, who was most familiar with the facts and circumstances surrounding Scruggs's case, has already done at least twice and as this Court has itself already done once—should deny Scruggs latest request for an appeal bond. Most significantly, looking to the first of the pertinent factors, the State believes Scruggs's likelihood (or lack thereof) to prevail on appeal does not justify the grant of an appeal bond. To the extent Scruggs asserts that he cannot be guilty of possession of a shotgun as a matter of law (and therefore, in his opinion, he should be granted an appeal bond for his upcoming home detention), this is a question of statutory interpretation concerning whether the weapon at issue is subject to the relevant statutory provision. This question has not yet been addressed by this Court or our supreme court. Further, the grand jury, by issuing its indictment, believed that the weapon at issue was subject to the relevant statute. See generally Pringle v. State, 287 S.C. 409, 410-11, 339 S.E.2d 127, 128 (1986) ("In the absence of evidence to the contrary, the regularity of the proceedings of a court of general jurisdiction will be assumed.").

As such, Scruggs cannot say with any certainty that he has a strong likelihood to prevail on appeal. Therefore, this factor weighs in favor of not granting an appeal bond. See Parker v. State Highway Dep't, 224 S.C. 263, 272-73, 78 S.E.2d 382, 386 (1953) ("Upon such conviction, there is no longer a presumption of innocence. There then arises a legal as well as laical presumption that the conviction is just. Such a presumption is not destroyed or abrogated by appeal." (internal quotations and citation omitted)); Nichols v. Patterson, 202 S.C. 352, ___, 25 S.E.2d 155, 155 (1943) ("[B]efore conviction[,] the law presumes him to be innocent, and after conviction[,] the law presumes him to be guilty."); State v. Williams, 166 S.C. 63, ___, 164 S.E. 415, 424 (1932) ("Under our system of jurisprudence, this court, and all other courts, must, within the law, uphold the great right of jury trial, and, when a jury of the country has spoken, its verdict must be presumed to have been correct."), overruled on other grounds by State v. Torrence, 305 S.C. 45, 406 S.E.2d 315 (1991).

Additionally, looking to Scruggs's character and circumstances, the trial court—after hearing all the evidence and testimony presented during trial—characterized him as a "total menace" and issued a permanent restraining order to provide needed protection from Scruggs to one of Scruggs's neighbors, which is a fact that goes against the issuance of an appeal bond. Furthermore, looking to Scruggs's personal attitude toward society and government, Scruggs was previously convicted of armed robbery and, despite that, has now been convicted by a jury of his peers of committing numerous additional violations of law by, amongst other things, possessing firearms he was prohibited from possessing by virtue of his earlier conviction, which suggests a continuing unwillingness to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law and, thus, is another fact supporting the denial of an appeal bond.

X.

Beyond the standard factors relevant to an appeal bond analysis, there are several other pertinent circumstances that further justify the denial of an appeal bond in Scruggs's case. First, Scruggs's latest appeal bond request has been made just thirty-seven days after this Court denied his last request, and he has not identified any change in circumstances since that point in time which would warrant a different outcome now. Cf. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-15-55(A)(2) (permitting a circuit court judge to consider a successive motion to reconsider bond only when either the defendant has made a "prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances" or a period of six months has elapsed).

Second and relatedly, because Scruggs's last request for an appeal bond was denied just over a month ago and he is not basing his renewed motion on anything new, Scruggs's latest request for an appeal bond is more akin to a petition for rehearing from his last motion denied by this Court. See Rule 221(c), SCACR ("The appellate court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal.").

XI.

For all the foregoing reasons, the specific and unique circumstances of Scruggs's case do not warrant the extraordinary relief of a grant of an appeal bond, much like this Court recognized little more than a month ago. Therefore, this Court should again exercise the caution warranted by the circumstances, do the same thing the well-informed trial court has done at least twice, do the same thing this Court has already done once, and deny Scruggs's latest motion for an appeal bond.

XII.

Finally, although the State believes this Court should—just as the trial court and this Court have done previously—deny Scruggs's appeal bond motion, this Court should impose reasonable bond conditions to protect the community in the event it determines Scruggs's case is so exceptional it warrants the grant of an appeal bond. Cf. Rule 243(k), SCACR ("If bail is granted, the court may require the posting of a bond and impose other conditions.").

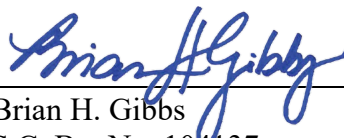

Specifically, due to the fact Scruggs has been convicted by a jury of his peers of twenty-seven different criminal offenses, this Court should—at a minimum—set bond in a dollar amount this Court believes will be sufficient to ensure compliance with all bond conditions, order Scruggs to remain on home detention during the pendency of the State's appeal, require—just as the trial court believed was critical to require—Scruggs to reside at a location outside the neighborhood where the incident took place, direct Scruggs not to have any contact in any form with Poole and to strictly comply with the conditions of the permanent restraining order, require Scruggs to submit to electronic monitoring at his own expense, preclude Scruggs from changing his address without prior court approval, and prohibit Scruggs from living at any residence containing firearms regardless of ownership.

WHEREFORE, the State requests that this Court deny Scruggs's latest Motion to Suspend House Arrest and grant any such other relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Case Nos 22-GS-04-1524, 1525, 1794, 2053

Warrant: 2022 A04 10100374; 417
Motion for Bond Pending Appeal

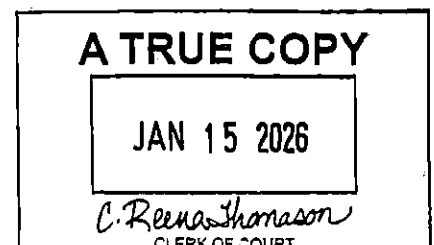

Carles Brandon Scruggs hereby moves the court to grant him an appeal bond pursuant to S.C. Code § 8-1-90. The Defendant is eligible for an appeal bond as he received a sentence of less than ten years. This court should consider the probability of a reversal of his conviction, the nature of the crime, the probability of flight by the defendant, and the circumstances of the defendant. When Mr. Scruggs was released on bond when first arrested, he complied with the requirements of his bond. He was on bond for over three years before his trial.

2 (The following proceedings started at 2:30 p.m.)

3 MS. FERGUSON: May it please the Court, Your Honor.

4 Before you is Carles Brandon Scruggs. He is represented
5 by Rauch Wise. This case has been tried in Anderson County
6 back in June of 2025, and Mr. Scruggs had filed an appeal.
7 This is Mr. Wise's motion for an appeal bond.

8 THE COURT: Did I hear the case?

9 MS. FERGUSON: Yes, sir. You did. You did hear the 10 case.

11 MR. WISE: It's a gun case, if that refreshes your 12 memory.

13 THE COURT: Where he had all those guns?

14 MS. FERGUSON: 26 some-odd guns. Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And what was the sentence?

16 MS. FERGUSON: It was -- hold on. I have a lot of paper.
17 Five years suspended upon 18 months with five years probation.
18 18 months active, and part of the sentence was a five-year
19 HIP, five-year probation. That was the one that was related
20 to the sawed-off shotgun.

21 THE COURT: What kind of prior record does this gentleman
22 have?

23 MS. FERGUSON: That I don't remember, Your Honor, quite 24 frankly. The most telling part of it, you know, the Attorney
25 General handles the appeal for the solicitor's offices, and

1 they are, of course, opposed to an appeal bond. That being 2 said, there were a number of calls for service out to this 3 residence preceding this trial, and during the trial it was 4 obvious to the Court that the neighbor was intimidated by Mr.
5 Scruggs and his conduct. Because of that, the State opposes
6 any appeals bond. I believe Mr. Wise had focused on the 7 admission of the sawed-off shotgun into evidence. It wasn't 8 measured, but the shotgun actually went back to the jury for 9 them to see it in their own hands, so with that, we're opposed
10 to an appeal bond. His max-out date is --

11 THE COURT: Go back and try to find the prior record.

12 MS. FERGUSON: I will, sir. His max-out is April 2nd,
13 2026. I want to say he had a prior armed robbery that 14 precipitated his felony that prohibited him from having 15 possession of those guns from 2010. The armed robbery was 16 perpetrated with the shotgun, and if I'm not mistaken, he also 17 had a DUI. And that was his whole record.

18 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Wise.

19 MR. WISE: Your Honor, first of all, one of the factors I
20 think you can consider is likelihood of success on appeal.
21 And I would like this marked as an exhibit. It was marked as 22 an exhibit at the trial while the jury was out for some 23 reason.

24 (WHEREUPON, firearms trace summary was marked and entered as 25 Defendant's Exhibit No. 1.)

1 And that's an ATF report that shows what they claim is a
2 sawed-off shotgun was legally purchased by his wife some two
3 years before this from a -- gosh, it's a business. It's now
4 gone out of business. It's another gun dealership. The gun
5 dealership couldn't have legally sold it had the gun been 6 illegal on that.

7 Secondly, the problem in the case as I see it, Your 8 Honor, is that a definition of what a shotgun is was never 9 read to the jury. It was discussed during jury deliberations,
10 but it was never read to the jury, and a shotgun is defined as 11 a weapon that's fired from the shoulder. The gun in this case
12 is what we call, or can be called, a shotgun pistol.

13 THE COURT: Let me ask you. I don't recall specifically,
14 but I know that normally we have a charge conference, and I
15 typically would charge anything that I'm requested to charge.
16 Did you ask me to charge that?

17 MR. WISE: It was -- I didn't try the case, but --

18 MS. FERGUSON: Mr. Harbin did not request that you charge
19 that.

20 MR. WISE: Okay. So no, it was not requested. And I'd 21 also like to hand up to the Judge -- this is a simple Google
22 search of shotgun pistols that could be -- here's a copy for 23 you.

24 MS. FERGUSON: Thank you.

25 MR. WISE: That could be legally purchased on the

1 Internet today, and many of those are shorter than the gun
2 involved in this particular case. So, I don't see how the 3 sawed-off shotgun case even remotely has a chance of standing
4 up on appeal, because the gun, as his wife testified, is 5 legal. It had a pistol grip, not a shoulder grip, and that 6 made all the difference in the world in this particular case.
7 And I think you can take judicial notice that --

8 THE COURT: I don't know. Judicial notice is different 9 from --

10 MR. WISE: Well, the ATF was not going to let somebody -- 11 let a gun dealer sell an illegal gun. If they know -- and 12 they knew about it, and they --

13 THE COURT: I can't take judicial notice of that, Mr.
14 Wise, but go ahead.

15 MR. WISE: Anyway.

16 THE COURT: Let me ask you from another perspective.

17 MR. WISE: Sure.

18 THE COURT: What was the sentence I gave to him back at 19 the time?

20 MR. WISE: 18 months.

21 THE COURT: 18 months. His out date would be...

22 MS. FERGUSON: April 27th of 2026.

23 MR. WISE: April of next year. One of the things I'd 24 like to point out on appeal bond is that if this conviction is 25 affirmed, he can always go serve the remainder of his time,

1 but if his conviction's reversed, he can't get that time back.
2 And it's not that long, so it really ought to factor into --

3 THE COURT: One thought that I was having -- there are 4 two thoughts. One will be by the time that the appeal's done
5 he's already served his time.

6 MR. WISE: Right.

7 THE COURT: Which is a concern. But the other concern is 8 I do recall the neighbor being extremely concerned about him,
9 and so that's his home, where this place -- where this address
10 is, or would he live somewhere else if I allowed him to do
11 that?

12 MR. WISE: Well, the restraining -- you can also issue a 13 restraining order, and we would leave that intact while the 14 appeal was pending.

15 THE COURT: Sir?

16 MR. WISE: We were willing -- we are not asking for the 17 restraining order to be lifted while the appeal is pending.
18 We would let that stay in place. He has no intention of 19 talking to the neighbor anyway, so he would be under a
20 restraining order not to have any contact with the neighbor.

21 MS. FERGUSON: Your Honor, even if that one weapon is 22 excluded from the evidence in this case --

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MS. FERGUSON: There were 20 other -- 25 other guns that 25 were improperly in his possession, and the jury looked at all

1 of those guns.

2 THE COURT: Did he -- was he found guilty on the other?

3 MS. FERGUSON: Yes, sir. All 26.

4 THE COURT: What was he sentenced to on those? The same
5 sentence?

6 MS. FERGUSON: Same sentence.

7 MR. WISE: And on those other gun charges --

8 THE COURT: You're trying to lead me down the road, Mr.
9 Wise.

10 MR. WISE: That's an issue to show on appeal, but the 11 testimony at the trial was all those weapons were kept in a 12 gun safe that he did not have access to, and the government in 13 this case had no evidence that he ever had access to those 14 guns in the gun case. There was some testimony --

15 THE COURT: I remember that, and I think that there was 16 other inferences could be drawn from the evidence. I think
17 that was not --

18 MR. WISE: Excuse me.

19 THE COURT: I thought based on -- my memory of it is that 20 there were other inferences that could have be drawn that 21 showed he did have access to it, but --

22 MR. WISE: Right. But there was testimony that he was 23 seen sometime in the past with a rifle with a scope on it that 24 should have been picked up on the video from the neighbors'
25 house, but that video -- if that video existed it was never

1 introduced.

2 MS. FERGUSON: Actually, that video was --

3 THE COURT: Hang on. Stop, stop. Don't interrupt him,
4 Patti.

5 MR. WISE: You know, the record doesn't reflect that 6 video was introduced.

7 THE COURT: From the house?

8 MR. WISE: Well, you know, the neighbor had 10 cameras
9 focused all around their house.

10 THE COURT: I remember that.

11 MR. WISE: And if there were a video of his walking
12 around with a gun with the scope on it, you know, I think we 13 would have seen that.

14 THE COURT: Let me tell you something. I would have no
15 problem in some sense granting your motion with one thing that 16 he can't go back to that residence. That's my concern, and --

17 MR. WISE: So --

18 THE COURT: I don't know how you could formulate that,
19 but --

20 MR. WISE: We --

21 THE COURT: Hang on. Hang on.

22 MR. WISE: Okay.

23 THE COURT: Because I hear you. I mean, there might be - 24 - and one concern I have is that it's such a short period of 25 time that he's in jail, that by the time he does his time, if

1 you're right, then he can't get it back. But at the same
2 time, these people have a right not to have him be a menace,
3 and he was a menace next door, and he was a menace regardless.
4 And so, if I grant that, it can't be any -- he'd be excluded
5 from coming around that property.

6 MR. WISE: Okay.

7 THE COURT: So can you come up with some solution to 8 that?

9 MR. WISE: I think arrangements can be made for him to 10 have a residence other than with his father next door to the 11 woman.

12 THE COURT: Well, I want to hear it, and he will have to 13 -- he won't be on house arrest, because I'm not going to let 14 him have credit. I want him going down to the Department of 15 Corrections if he does, but he'll be on GPS monitoring, so
16 find a place. Let me hear what it is. I'm not saying I'm 17 giving it to you, but I'll certainly consider it. I will not 18 consider it if it's where -- next-door or anywhere close to 19 the victims in this case. Okay?

20 MR. WISE: Excuse me.

21 THE COURT: And I'll let you speak.

22 MS. FERGUSON: Well, and of course I have to make the 23 record, Your Honor, that after his arrest on these charges
24 there were at least three other calls for services to Jackson
25 Street to the neighbors, and not just that one neighbor but

1 the surrounding neighbors were making reports.

2 THE COURT: Right. I don't want him in that area, so --
3 go ahead.

4 MR. WISE: All right. So how are we going to do this 5 logistically?

6 THE COURT: Well, logistically, you're going to tell me
7 where he would live.

8 MR. WISE: All right.

9 THE COURT: And I will consider it in relationship to 10 where this other victim's -- I say victim's neighbors -- to 11 this gentleman are, because he's going to have an exclusion
12 zone. I don't see how close he would be, and also it will be 13 something that he'll have to be on GPS monitoring but not 14 under conditions where he's getting credit. I'm not going to 15 give him credit while he's on home incarceration.

16 MR. WISE: Right.

17 THE COURT: If he loses, he's going down to Department of 18 Corrections.

19 MR. WISE: He was on monitoring before, but --

20 THE COURT: I understand, and he may have gotten credit
21 for it --

22 MR. WISE: He didn't have a problem with it.

23 THE COURT: -- but I'm talking about I'm not going to let 24 him come back out of the Department of Corrections and him get 25 credit and not have to go back.

1 MR. WISE: Okay.

2 THE COURT: So I'm going to have him go back if he loses,
3 but if you can show me a good place for him to stay, Mr. Wise,
4 I have no problem giving you that.

5 MR. WISE: I think that could be done. Let me --

6 THE COURT: Just do that and then communicate -- you
7 don't have to do it right this second, but you can do it
8 whenever. You can do it right now if you want to.

9 MR. WISE: The only -- this is not your problem. It's my 10 problem. I'm leaving Monday and won't be back until after 11 Christmas, but that's another story.

12 THE COURT: Where are you going?

13 MR. WISE: I'm going to see my sister in Belize.

14 THE COURT: Belize? Life's tough for you, brother. I'm 15 sorry. All right. No. Go ahead.

16 MR. WISE: But I'll get with you today on that, because 17 his mother and father are here.

18 THE COURT: And Patti.

19 MR. WISE: Okay. We'll include her in the email chain.

20 THE COURT: That'll be good. Thank you.

21 MS. FERGUSON: Your Honor, one more thing. For the 22 record, his mother lives on Loblolly, which is geographically
23 close to Jackson Street and Standridge Road. It's right off
24 Pearman Dairy Road, so --

25 THE COURT: He's going to show you where and you look at

1 it, and that's why I want you included, because if there's a
2 problem we'll address it. Okay.

3 (Whereupon, break from 2:42 p.m. to 3:14 p.m. During this 4 break, Diablo pistol information was marked and entered into 5 evidence as Defendant's Exhibit No. 2.)

6 THE COURT: All right. This is the gun case in the 7 appeal bond matter.

8 MR. WISE: Yes, sir. His mother lives close by where the 9 father lives. He has some friends in the neighborhood, so
10 that wouldn't work either.

11 As a practical matter, Your Honor, in order for him to 12 pay for an ankle monitor, he's going to have to work. He was 13 working at his father's house, small engine repair, some work
14 on some cars, and stuff like that. His father's in poor
15 health, and the family was hoping that he could live with his 16 father at the present time. I think the restraining order
17 that's in place that --

18 THE COURT: He will not. I heard this trial, and he was 19 a total menace. He's a menace to these people.

20 MR. WISE: But she also has, you know, adequate
21 surveillance, too.

22 THE COURT: I'm just telling you I'm not going to do
23 that. Okay? I gave him a chance. If he can live somewhere
24 else, fine. I'm going to deny his bond. Good luck to you.

APPEAL FROM ANDERSON COUNTY
Court of General Sessions
Honorable R. Lawton McIntosh, Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2025-001295
Case Nos 22-GS-04-1524, 1525, 1794, 2053

The State, ... Respondent,

v.

Carles Brandon Scruggs, ... Appellant

Motion for Appeal Bond

Pursuant to Rule 246 (a) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules and South Carolina Code § 18-1-80, Carles Brandon Scruggs hereby moves this Court to set an appeal bond in this matter. This Motion is based upon the following facts:

1. In case № 22-GS-04-1794, Carles Brandon Scruggs was convicted of a violation of South Carolina Code § 16-23-0230 for the alleged possession of a sawed off shotgun. He was sentenced to 10 years suspended to 18 months in the South Carolina Department of Corrections and 42 months in the home incarceration program. He is currently serving the 18 months in the South Carolina Department of Corrections.

2. As to this charge, Mr. Scruggs is as a matter of law not guilty as the weapon he possessed is not illegal under code section for which he was convicted. The testimony at the trial shows this firearm, a picture of which is attached as exhibit A, was legally purchased by Christy Anne Bryant as she testified at the trial. Her testimony on this issue is set forth in Exhibit B consisting of pages 42, at line 13 to 43 at line 10. Further, during the bond hearing defense counsel introduced the Firearms Trace Summery, issued by the Department of Justice. This document is attached as exhibit C. This document shows the weapon was sold to Ms. Bryant on March 5, 2020 by Pack Arms, LLC, a registered firearms dealer bearing license № 15704706. As the weapon was not an illegal sawed off shot gun at the time of the sale, an no evidence in this trial showed the weapon had been modified in any manner, the weapon remained legal when it was seized by the officer in this case. In addition, defense counsel, at the bond hearing, introduced pictures of similar type weapons being sold by a firearm dealer through the internet. As this weapon as a matter of law is not a sawed-off shotgun, then as a matter of law this conviction cannot stand. The jury had no issue to decide as to the legality of this weapon.

3. As explained by Ms. Bryant at the trial, the definition of a sawed-off shot gun excludes a weapon which is not designed to be fired from the shoulder. This provision is set forth in South Carolina Code § 16-23-210 (b), (c), and (e). As the weapon in question was never designed to be fired from the shoulder, it does not qualify as an illegal weapon under South Carolina law.

4. The other charges involved various firearms. The theory of the state was that as Mr. Scruggs stayed in the home where the firearms were stored in locked safes, he had access to the weapons and therefore he constructively possessed them. On those charge he received a sentence of five years suspend to 18 months in the department of corrections and five years probation. In the event the possession of a firearm by a person convicted of a violent crime is upheld, Mr. Scruggs will be able to finish the few months left on his sentence if this court grants him an appeal bond. In the event the convictions are reversed, the state will not be able to give back to Mr. Scruggs the time he has served. Mr. Scruggs was released either a $5,000 surety bond or on a $5,000 personal recognizance bond for the pending charges. He did not violate the terms of his bond and appeared in court for this trial.

5. At the bond hearing, the trial judge was willing to release Mr. Scruggs if he would agree not to live in the vicinity of Ms. Poole, the neighbor who was living next door to house belonging to the father of Mr. Scruggs. Mr. Scruggs was unable to obtain such housing as his mother lives in the area. Further, he was employed making repairs on small engines and the place he worked was at his father's house.

For the foregoing reasons, Carles Brandon Scruggs prays that this court grant him a bond pending the appeal in this matter.

1 firearm that was supposed to be returned to you?

2 A Yes, ma'am.

3 Q And would you publish the serial number that's 4 written on that court order?

5 A It's the UGB146.

6 Q Your testimony is that that was your Glock?

7 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q That's your Glock?

9 A Yes, ma'am. I purchased it from a private 10 seller, yes, ma'am. And I actually called the 11 sheriff's office and ran the numbers before I
12 purchased it.

13 Q Okay. And that really short barrel -- that short
14 Remington firearm, there's a picture here somewhere,
15 it looks almost like a 12-gauge sawed-off shotgun.

16 A It's a 12-gauge firearm. I purchased it
17 through Pack Arms, the FFL.

18 Q That's your firearm?

19 A Yes, ma'am.

20 Q Even if it's classified as a sawed-off shotgun,
21 it's your firearm.

22 A It's not classified as a sawed off shogun. I
23 purchased it from the FFL.

24 Q Why is it not classified as a sawed-off shotgun?

25 A Because it's had a stock put on it where it

1 could be fired from the shoulder.

2 Q Okay. How long is the barrel?

3 A It's tactical. I really don't know. I
4 purchased it from the FFL and it's never had the 5 stock handle removed. Now, if the handle were 6 removed and a stock was put on it to be fired from 7 the shoulder, and then say I went to put the 8 original handle back on it, that would still be 9 considered a sawed-off shotgun. But it's never 10 had that grip removed.

11 Q What makes it a saw off shotgun?

12 A The barrel being sawed off.

13 Q Okay.

14 A The barrel has not been sawed off.

15 Q Was the length of statutory --

16 MR. HARBIN: Objection; asked and 17 answered, and also just facts not known to her.
18 She's asking, essentially, what law is.

19 THE COURT: If she knows, she knows. If 20 she doesn't, she can just say she doesn't know.

21 BY MS. FERGUSON:

22 Q Again, what is the length that makes it a
23 sawed-off shotgun?

24 MR. HARBIN: Objection. It's the same
25 question.

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Carles Brandon Scruggs, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2025-001295

ORDER

On June 26, 2025, Appellant filed a notice of appeal from his convictions and concurrent sentences for unlawful possession of a sawed-off shotgun and multiple counts of possession of a firearm or ammunition by a person convicted of a violent offense. As part of the sentence, the trial judge issued a permanent restraining order prohibiting Appellant from having any contact with a neighbor. On December 10, 2025, the trial court heard Appellant’s motion for an appeal bond. The trial court expressed its willingness to grant an appeal bond if Appellant could identify a place where he could reside that was not close to the neighbor from whom he was restrained. When Appellant was unable to do so, the trial court denied Appellant’s motion for bond.

Appellant filed a motion for bail pending his appeal. The State filed a return. After careful consideration of the filings, we deny Appellant’s motion. See Rule 246(a), SCACR (explaining “a sentence of confinement shall not be stayed until the defendant has posted bail” under the relevant statutory provisions); S.C. Code Ann. § 18-1-80 (2014) (“Pending such appeal the defendant shall still remain in confinement until he give bail in such sum and with such sureties as to the court shall seem proper.”); S.C. Code Ann. § 18-1-90 (2014) (“Bail may be allowed to the defendant in all cases in which the appeal is from the trial, conviction, or sentence for a criminal offense.”); Nicholas v. Patterson, 202 S.C. 352, 356, 25 S.E.2d 155, 156 (1943) (explaining that in considering a motion for bail pending appeal, the court should examine “the existence of the probability of a reversal, the enormity of the charge, the danger that if freed the accused will commit a crime of like character, the probability of a forfeiture of the bail and escape, the character and reputation of the accused and his surrounding circumstances, such as his recent convictions, if any, of other or similar offenses, as well as his personal attitude toward society and government”).

Subject: State v. Carles B. Scruggs

As you are aware, the Court of Appeals deferred to your judgment in denying bond without special conditions as to where Mr. Scruggs would live. He has now found a place to live at 113 Lawrence Beaty Road, Anderson. SC. According to Google Earth it is 5.1 miles in a straight line from Ms. Poole. He will live with Chantal Bryant. He would need one day to get some of his equipment from his father's house so he can work at Ms. Bryant's house. This can be done with police supervision.

I have talked to Ms. Bryant and she has no problem allowing him to live at her house. She also has no objection to his keeping his equipment there. I sent this information to Ms. Ferguson a week or so ago to see if she had any objections. I have not heard back from her. Would this address be sufficiently far enough away from Ms. Poole to be satisfactory?

Thanks

Rauch Wise

Mr. Wise,
Mark Farthing with the Attorney General's Office handled Mr. Scrugg's bond request to the Court of Appeals and filed the Return. I have not responded, because I believe that your inquiry is more appropriately directed to Mr. Farthing. I also understand that the Court of Appeals considered and denied the request and did not send it back to Judge McIntosh. Therefore, this matter is res judicata; I believe that Mr. Scrugg's his release date is April 7, 2026.
Respectfully,
Patti Ferguson
