Can you please clarify the amount of the fee that is required being that the motion for the pauper is denied?

Good Evening,

My daughter Sha'Hara Pressley left a voicemail with the appeals Court. They sent a letter that I never received. I was unaware that they denied the motion forma pauperis. Can you please advise on how much the fees are that is required of me? I am also concerned whether if when I called today letting my daughter leave a voicemail then I whether I would have received this email today or whether I would've receive communication once the time had expired. The letter sent today in the email I have never receive a copy via email or mail before today's date nor have I receive a copy of the notice received today as well. Can you clarify when does the 15 days start being that I am just receiving this information? Does it include weekend days or just week days.
