SC Court of Appeals

IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

Appellant: Arieyanna Hickman
Respondent: Stephen Woodard

MOTION TO RECALL REMITTITUR

NOW COMES the Appellant, Arieyanna Hickman, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court to recall the remittitur issued in this matter.

In support of this Motion, the Appellant states as follows:

1. The Appellant timely filed an appeal before this Court.
2. During the appellate process, the Appellant submitted corrections and discrepancies relevant to the case record.
3. These discrepancies were not reviewed or considered prior to the issuance of the remittitur.
4. The Appellant has since been informed that the submitted discrepancies were overlooked.
5. As a result, the remittitur was issued without full and fair consideration of all relevant filings.
6. This oversight constitutes a due process concern and has resulted in substantial prejudice to the Appellant, including enforcement actions in the lower court.

WHEREFORE, the Appellant respectfully requests that this Court:

- A. Recall the remittitur issued in this case;
- B. Reconsider the case in light of the previously submitted discrepancies;
- C. Grant any other relief deemed just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Arieyanna Hickman
