SCACR 203 (a) (6)

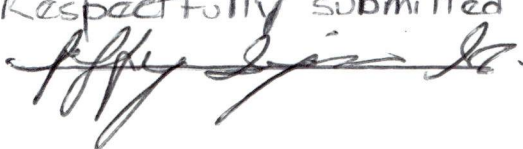

Notice of Interlocutory appeal

The Appellant hereby move before this honorable court for a interlocutory appeal, regarding the Appellate case No.: 2026-000102, concerning a appeal from the S.C Administrative Law court case No. 2025ALJ040705IJ, that which the appellant had timely submitted a notice for a interlocutory appeal of the Administrative Law Judge December 30 2025, order of dismissal. see Docket No. 25-ALJ-04-0705-IJ. The appellant's interlocutory appeal is with respect to caselaw, see Pledger v. Lynch united states court of appeals Fourth circuit July 21. 2021 S. Fth 511, and furthermore the Hon. S. Phillip Lenski administrative December 30. 2025, order of dismissal see Docket No.

25-ALJ-04-0705-IJ had derived from a premature summary Judgment motion see (Exh. 0). The appellant was compelled to file a notice of Interlocutory appeal on the 9th day of January 2026 see (Exhibit, W.). However, the Honorable S. Phillip Lenski, December 30 2025 order of dismissal see Docket No. 25-ALJ-04-0705-IJ did prevent a equal opportunity to develop the discovery that establishes that a actual state created liberty interest that which the appellant had been deprived.

The Appellant contends that this appeal is with respect to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, (Rule 244 petitions to invoke the original jurisdiction of the South Carolina Supreme court under Rule 245:

This notice for a interlocutory appeal derived from a order per the South Carolina Court of appeal February 27 2026 order of dismissal. The Appellant had filed initially within the Supreme Court, and however the Supreme court had sent the case to the court of Appeals see (Exhibit X)

Respectfully submitted
