

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM PICKENS COUNTY
Court of General Sessions

G. Edward Welmaker, Circuit Court Judge

Case No. 2013-002387

James Leland Johnson,

Appellant,

v.

State of South Carolina,

Respondent.

RECEIVED

DEC 05 2013

SC Court of Appeals

REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The undersigned requests the Court grant a thirty (30) day extension of time to order the transcript of record in this matter. The undersigned served as the trial attorney and has not been retained to perfect the appeal. The undersigned provided the Appellant with the Affidavit of Indigency and instructions for completion and has had no response to date from Appellant. Out of an abundance of caution for the protection of the Appellant's rights, the undersigned requests the Court grant a thirty (30) day extension of time in which to order the transcript of record.

RE: State of South Carolina v. James L. Johnson
2013-GS-39-515
Appellate Case #2013-002387

Dear Clerk Kitchings:

Mr. Johnson has not retained me to perfect this appeal and the deadline for ordering the transcript is today. My office personally provided Mr. Johnson with the Affidavit of Indigency along with instructions for completion and to date he has failed to return same to me. I have attempted to contact him again today and have left a message for him. I would respectfully request a thirty (30) day extension of time to order the transcript and have enclosed a Request for Extension and Certificate of Service.

Very truly yours,

Cheryl Aaron
