RE: Attorney L. Bradley Smith's correspondence via email to S.C.C.O.A. March 10, 2026, withdrawal representation

Dear Mary Caitlyn Singleton,

I received the above referenced correspondence from Attorney L. Bradley Smith, Rivertown Law, Conway, S.C. on March 14, 2026.

Inasmuch as my correspondence, briefs, and filings detail:

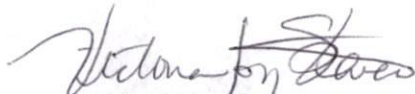

- This legal practitioner's abuse of process, relative to case #2022CP2604125.
 - Misrepresentation of Law.
 - Lack of knowledge or timely research into SC Code statutes involving his client's illegal actions.
 - Chosen, feigned ignorance of my severe, permanent disability.
 - Delaying proceedings to engage in judge shopping.
 - Sharp practice of Law

It is with disbelief, due to his lack of candor with this tribunal that I pray this tribunal will remedy these abuses of process, and hardships presented to his opposing common pleas party through acknowledgement of unethical demonstrations of misconduct, and the corresponding sharp practice of law with Sanctions, Fines, and Disciplinary Actions. Said Legal Practitioner seeks to withdraw representation. His withdrawal does not absolve liability, and I will seek compensation for damages and pain caused by said delays and abuse of process.

- The misconduct committed by this legal practitioner is listed below.
 - Knowledgeable abuse of process by representation of a client sans legal standing.
 - Knowledgeable abuse of process in a case involving constitutionally mandated accommodations.
 - Knowledgeable abuse of process with a pro se litigant.

I plead with this court to act upon Motion I will submit regarding sanctions, reimbursement to the Plaintiff, and fines upon L. Bradley Smith for his misconduct, failure to follow letter of the Law, and the sharp practice of Law. I remain,

Yours truly,

Victoria Joy Stevens
