Motion to Exclude
Proof of Service

The State
vs Plaintiff

Terrell Herbert Sr
Pro-Se Defendant

I Pro-Se Defendant Terrell Herbert Sr. file this Motion to Exclude Proof of Service for the reasons stated below. Defendant is currently in Custody of Florence County Detention Center who has adopted a document signing process preventing inmates from receiving physical legal mail. Instead of inmates receiving physical legal mail, it is stored electronically. Furthermore Defendant is set to leave F.C.D.C and be transferred to S.C.D.A.C. The process to receive his mail will take up to 1 week and the defendant will have been transferred. The Administration said any legal mail that is sent after he leaves will be returned to sender.

Defendant asks if the Court of Appeals will exclude the proof of service, and verify with Florence County Clerk of Court that his Notice to Appeal, his convictions, and his sentence was sent to Florence County Clerk, and the 12th circuit Solicitor's office. Both Notices of Appeals has already been entered to the Clerk of Court, but Defendant is having trouble obtaining them along with the proof of service physically. Defendant asks this request Humbly and Respectfully, Thank you.
