Se ("POWERS"), moves the court in the above captioned proceedings;
Respectfully requests the Court allow the filing of the APPELLANT

MOTION REQUESTING PERMISSION TO FILE APPELLANT TRANSCRIPT AND INITIAL BRIEF AND RULE 269 FRIVOLOUS APPEALS, PETITIONS, MOTIONS, OR RETURNS BASED ON APPOINTMENTS CLAUSE VIOLATION. 1. This Rule 15(a) is substantially the same as the Federal Rule, and preserves present State practice under Code §§ 15-13-910 and 15-13-920. The Rule increases the time to amend a pleading without court order from 20 to 30 days, and the time to plead in response to an amended pleading from 10 to 15 days. It also adds the requirement that the court not allow amendment prejudicial to another party, which is a statement of existing case law.

2. Rule 15 (a) Amendments. A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before or within 30 days' after a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is required and the action has not been placed upon the trial roster, he may so amend it at any time within 30 days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires and does not prejudice any other party. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within fifteen days after service of the named amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

3. This ensures that all procedural requirements are met and that the appeal can proceed without unnecessary complications.

4. Appellant asks this Court to exercise its jurisdiction Pursuant U.S. Const. art. III, § 1. U.S. Const. Art. II, § 2, cl. 2 and under 28 U.S.C. § 1291, correct and prevent ongoing and irreparable constitutional harms arising from Respondents' Due process defect, particularly if they we're not given adequate notice, extraordinary abuse of South Carolina statutory provisions Constitutional and Statutory Procedural See State v. 8. APPELLANT MOTION REQUESTING PERMISSION TO FILE APPELLANT

TRANSCRIPT AND INITIAL BRIEF AND RULE 269 FRIVOLOUS APPEALS, PETITIONS, MOTIONS, OR RETURNS BASED ON APPOINTMENTS CLAUSE VIOLATION, should be GRANTED by this Court in accordance with this Order because Special Counsel Caulder, Gibbons appointment violates the Appointments Clause of the United States Constitution. U.S. Const., Art. II, § 2, cl. 2. U.S. Const. art. III, § 1, Special Counsel Caulder, Gibbons use of a permanent indefinite Appropriation also violates the Appropriations Clause, U.S. Const., Art. I, § 9, cl. Thus, Rule 53(b) provides no authority for the order of reference in this case. In matters brought to our attention, the Special referee appointed by the circuit court is typically a lawyer.

9. A judgment is typically void for two main reasons: the court lacked `subject-matter jurisdiction` (the power to hear this type of case) or it lacked `personal jurisdiction` over the Appellant (usually because the Appellant was never properly notified of the lawsuit, a violation of `procedural due process`).

10. The principal grounds for vacatur include:

1. Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect
Newly discovered evidence
2. Fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct
3. Void judgment due to jurisdictional or due process defects
4. Judgment satisfied, released, or reversed
5. Extraordinary circumstances or other justifiable reasons

11. The reason Fraud upon the Court by Officers of the

INTRODUCTION

The Motion before the Court challenges the legality of Special Counsel Judge Gibbons and Judge Caulder (hereinafter, “Special Counsel Judge Gibbons and Judge Caulder” or “Special Counsel”) in two consequential respects, both of which are matters of first impression in this Circuit, and both of which must be resolved before this prosecution proceeds further Rule 53. The first is a challenge to his appointment under the Appointments Clause, which provides the exclusive means for appointing “Officers of the United States.” Article II, § 2, cl. 2. The Appointments Clause sets as a default rule that all “Officers of the United States”—whether “inferior” or “principal”—must be appointed by the President and Confirmed by the Senate.

Bradley Caulder probate judges Should a judge Not disqualify himself as required by law, then the judge has given another. example of her "Appearance of partiality" which, possibly, further disqualifies the judge Should another judge not accept disqualification of the judge, then the second judge has evidenced an "Appearance of partiality" and has possibly disqualified himself /herself. None of the orders issued by any judge who has been disqualified by law would appear to be valid. They are void as a matter of law, and are of no legal force or effect. Id. It then goes on to direct that "Congress may by Law vest the Appointment of such inferior Officers, as they think proper, in the President alone, in the Courts of Law, or in Heads of Departments." Id. For purposes of this Order, the Court accepts the Special Counsel's contested view that he qualifies as an "inferior Officer," not a "principal" one, although the Court expresses reservations about that proposition and addresses those arguments below. This Motion's second challenge is rooted in the Appropriations Clause, which prohibits The Supreme Court of South Carolina ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER, The power of the circuit court to appoint a referee is governed by Rule 53 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

Subsection (b) of the Rule provides only that "causes of action in a case" may be referred under the circumstances listed in the Rule. A discovery dispute is not a "cause of action." Thus, Rule 53(b) provides no authority for the order of reference in this case. Special Counsel as so-called special referees has been appropriated by an act of Congress. Art. I, § 9, cl. but in Consequence of Appropriations made by Law. . .”).

Both the Appointments and Appropriations challenges as framed in the Motion raise the following threshold question: is there a statute in the United States Code that authorizes the appointment of Special Counsel Smith to conduct this prosecution? After careful study of this seminal issue, the answer is no. None of the statutes cited as legal authority for the appointment— The South Carolina Supreme Court in including the Specific requirements of section See FED. R. Civ. P. 53(b), 28 U.S.C. §§ 636(c)(1) & (c)(3). See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(2) 28 U.S.C. § 636(c)(4); 28 U.S.C. §636(c)(5), that must be satisfied before Authority to Rule 28 U.S.C. §§ 636(c) as South Carolina Supreme Court has held, "The term 'shall' in a statute means that the action is mandatory, These statutes, singly or collectively, plainly provide no such authority.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND OVERVIEW OF MOTION

31. In 2020 and later in 2026, The Hon. Bradley Caulder the Circuit Court Illegally, “Improperly Appointed United States Magistrate Judge Hon, Brian M. Gibbons in 2020 and later in 2026, Appellant filed two actions from which these appeals arise in the Fairfield County Probate Court (Civil Action No. 2022-GS-2000001 and Civil Action No. 2023 ES-2000136), “The judicial Power of the United States, shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish.” U.S. Const. art. III, § 1. That judicial power—the power to “render dispositive judgments,” Plaut v. Spendthrift Farm, Inc., 514 U.S. 211, 219 (1995)—can be exercised only by “judges who have life tenure and protection from decreases in salary,” Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 153 (1985). Neither Congress nor Article III judges can assign or delegate that power outside Article III. “When a suit is made of the stuff of the traditional actions at common law tried by the courts at Westminster in 1789, and is brought within the bounds of federal jurisdiction, the responsibility for deciding that suit rests with Article III judges in Article III courts.” Stern, 564 U.S. at 484 (citation omitted). See State v. Jeroid J. Price, 28177 (S.C. 2023) as we explain in subsections A and B of section IV—the circuit court committed errors of law and exceeded its authority.⁶ In these two subsections, we explain the circuit court exceeded its authority by violating two fundamental principles of law. First, all of our courts are bound to follow clear and unambiguous statutory law.

32. The President shall appoint Article III, judges
The brief argues that The Hon. Bradley Caulder the Circuit Court Illegally, “Improperly Appointed United States Magistrate Judge Hon, Brian M. Gibbons “exceeded his statutory and constitutional authority” when they appointed in 2020 and later in 2026, Because Thiers appointment was unconstitutional, “every action that he has taken since his appointment is now null and void, “Improperly appointed, he has no more authority to represent the United States in this court than

33. The South Carolina Governor cannot illegally point a Magistrate Judge due to the established legal framework and ethical considerations. The Governor's appointment authority is limited to ensuring that the magistrate is a practicing lawyer with a clean record, as recommended by the senatorial delegation. The JMSC is composed of non-legislative members who must be members of the South Carolina Bar with at least 10 years' experience. The bill also includes term limits for JMSC members and requires all meetings to be livestreamed, ensuring transparency and accountability. These measures aim to prevent the appointment of judges as personal favors and to maintain the integrity of the judicial process.

34. Judicial Appointments: The governor appoints judges to fill vacancies in the state judiciary, subject to confirmation by the Senate.

¹Defendants each of them are join to the Motion filed with this Court.

separately raises an Appropriations Clause challenge because (1) he is drawing on a permanent indefinite appropriation reserved for an “independent counsel” under a statutory appropriation that does not apply to them, see Supreme Court of South Carolina ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER June 3, 2021, Rule 53(b) provides no authority for the order of reference in this case. Counsel will oppose both challenges. As to the Appointments Clause issue, 58. "The Court take judicial notice that In South Carolina, jurisdiction, or the basic authority of a judge to hear and exercise Judgment of a matter is based upon three considerations: territorial jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction, and the amount in controversy, ($300,-000.

Territorial jurisdiction for each magistrate extends throughout the county in which he is appointed in both civil and criminal matters.

To understand the latter two determinations of jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction and amount in controversy, one must look to S.C. Code Ann. §§ 22-3-10, and 22-3-20. Section 22-3-10, as limited by § 22-3-20, sets out magisterial jurisdiction over fourteen areas of civil subject matter as follows:

59. Sherer v. Cullen , 481 F 946. We could go on, quoting court decision after court decision, however, the Constitution itself answers our question ♦ Can a government legally put restrictions on the rights of the American people at any time, for any reason?

The answer is found in Article Six of the U.S. Constitution: Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 426, 491; 86 S. Ct. 1603 "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no 'rule making' or legislation which would abrogate them."

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Columbia, South Carolina

June 3, 2021

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

We issue this administrative order to enjoin the practice in some circuit courts of referring discovery disputes to so-called special referees for resolution.

The power of the circuit court to appoint a referee is governed by Rule 53 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. Subsection (b) of the Rule provides only that "causes of action in a case" may be referred under the circumstances listed in the Rule. A discovery dispute is not a "cause of action." Thus, Rule 53(b) provides no authority for the order of reference in this case.

In matters brought to our attention, the special referee appointed by the circuit court is typically a lawyer. The lawyer assigned to resolve the discovery dispute generally charges his or her customary hourly rate, a fee not contemplated by the parties when they elected to file the action in circuit court. We are mindful of the burden imposed on our circuit judges in resolving discovery disputes. However, while we recognize that discovery disputes can be complicated and time-consuming, it is the duty of the circuit court to address and resolve discovery disputes. We remind the circuit court judges that the seldom-utilized rule for awarding fees and imposing sanctions, SCRPC 37, is available to deter discovery abuses.

The circuit court shall discharge its duty by addressing and resolving discovery disputes. To the extent some circuit courts have utilized the practice of referring discovery disputes to special referees, that practice is enjoined, effectively immediately.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

The State of South Carolina
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

HENRY McMASTER
ATTORNEY GENERAL

September 11, 2003

Brian M. Gibbons, Esquire
Fort Lawn Town Attorney
Post Office Drawer 808
Chester, South Carolina 29706-0808

Dear Mr. Gibbons:

You state in your letter that you represent the Town of Fort Lawn as its Town Attorney. You seek an opinion "concerning an issue involving an employee of the Town who also happens to be the Municipal Judge." A job description of this individual's duties on behalf of the Town has been enclosed. By way of background, you state the following:

[the employee] ... is employed by the Town of Fort Lawn as the "Clerk of Court" or police clerk. Her job duties in this position normally require her to do all the record keeping for the police department, including filing, processing the ticket, incident report, etc. In addition, she accepts the payments of the fines associated with traffic tickets issued by the Town of Fort Lawn.

Ms. Revels was also appointed by the Town of Fort Lawn last year as the Municipal Judge. At that time, I raised an opinion that it would be a conflict of interest for an employee of the Town to [be] the Municipal Judge as well The Town is seeking an Attorney General's opinion concerning the practice of having an employee who is the police clerk and also the "Clerk of Court" serving as municipal judge. In my opinion, I believe it is a conflict of interest and the Town needs to appoint another judge

We note also that Judge Revels has asked for an opinion as to this question as well. We are consolidating both requests for opinions into a single request.

Law / Analysis

The situation which you raise presents a number of separate issues, all of which are problematical in terms of the person continuing to serve in both capacities. We thus agree with your assessment that there would be a conflict of interest for an employee of the Town to serve as Municipal Judge as well. Our analysis is set forth more fully below.

Mr. Gibbons
September 11, 2003

The first issue which must be addressed is dual office holding. Article XVII, Section 1A of the State Constitution provides that "no person may hold two offices of honor or profit at the same time ..." with exceptions specified for an officer in the militia, member of a lawfully and regularly organized fire department, constable, or notary public. For this provision to be contravened, a person concurrently must hold two offices which have duties involving an exercise of some portion of the sovereign power of the State. Sanders v. Belue, 78 S.C. 171, 58 S.E. 762 (1907). Other relevant considerations are whether statutes, or other such authority, establish the position, prescribe its duties or salary, or require qualifications or an oath for the position. State v. Crenshaw, 274 S.C. 475, 266 S.E.2d 61 (1980).

This Office has advised on numerous occasions that both clerks of court and municipal judges are office holders for purposes of dual office holding. See, as representative of those numerous opinions, Op. S.C. Atty. Gen., July 25, 2002 (Town of Westminster Clerk of Court); August 5, 1992 (City of Pamplico Clerk of Court); March 14, 1983 (City of Cayce Clerk of Court); October 11, 2000 (part-time municipal judges are office holders); August 5, 2000 (Johnsonville City Judge); June 22, 1998 (Town of Hilton Head Associate Judge). More importantly, we specifically advised the Town of Summerville, in an opinion dated August 18, 1981, that a person who simultaneously serves as part-time municipal judge and clerk of the municipal court would clearly violate the dual office holding prohibition of the South Carolina Constitution. We are aware of no recently enacted law that would alter the August 18, 1981 opinion and, therefore, advise that an individual who holds both offices would be in violation of the state constitution.

It is not clear from your letter or the job descriptions which you have enclosed whether the positions of municipal judge and clerk of court and/or "police clerk" are separate positions in the Town of Fort Lawn or whether all of the various job duties have been assigned to one position. See, § 14-25-35 [municipal clerk or other municipal employee may be appointed to serve as clerk of the court]. If these are separate positions, as it appears they are, see, § 14-25-15, then, a dual office holding situation has occurred by simultaneously holding these positions. On the other hand, additional duties may be assigned to a single position. See, Op. S.C. Atty. Gen., August 27, 2003; Op. S.C. Atty. Gen., June 2, 2000; Op. S.C. Atty. Gen., November 10, 1998. [The mere assignment of additional duties to an already-existing office would not create a second office.]

It is clear, however, that state law in § 14-25-15 and 14-25-35 has designated the positions of municipal judge and municipal clerk as separate positions. Thus, in our view, a dual office holding situation has been created here. No where does state law appear to allow the duties of municipal judge to be assigned to the municipal clerk or vice versa. Thus, even though the municipal clerk is authorized also to serve as clerk of court for the municipal court, § 14-25-35 does not allow the duties of a municipal judge – who is an officer not an "employee" – to be assigned to the town clerk. Accordingly, it is likely that a court would conclude that a municipal judge who also serves as municipal clerk or clerk of the municipal court is dual office holding.

September 11, 2003

However, we must also examine the question of whether a conflict of interest, or the appearance thereof, is created by the individual's service simultaneously as municipal judge and clerk of court for the Municipal Court as well as "police clerk." You have forwarded to us a general job description of Judge Revels' duties in this dual capacity. Such description states:

[s]erves as judge and clerk of court for the Municipal Court. Performs various routine and moderately complex administrative clerical duties, processing court dockets, collecting fines and bonds, completing fingerprint cards, hears and presides over criminal, city ordinance and traffic cases and determines judgments that are fair, impartial and just, and performs related functions.

Also included are specific job functions. Among these are to "[m]aintain ongoing relationship with SC Department of Public Safety," "[m]aintain log for community service designees," "[c]ollect all fines and bonds for Municipal Court system," "[r]eceive, review, prepares and processes various forms, phone messages, fingerprint cards, court dockets, payments, record checks, rap sheet requests, etc." Your letter describes part of the Judge's duties as not only "clerk of court" but "police clerk" or serving as record keeper for the police department.

In O'Shields v. Caldwell, 207 S.C. 194, 35 S.E.2d 184 (1945), our Supreme Court observed that "every public officer is bound to perform the duties of his office honestly, faithfully and to the best of his ability, in a manner so as to be above suspicion or irregularity, and to act primarily for the benefit of the public."

A municipal judge, whether full-time or part-time is, of course, a judicial officer. Municipal judges are appointed by the City Council and their terms, not to exceed four years, are set by Council. See, § 14-25-15 of the S.C. Code Ann. The compensation of such judges is established by the Council.

At the same time, it must be remembered that Article V of the South Carolina Constitution places the Municipal Courts, including the Municipal Judges thereof under the auspices and control of the Supreme Court of South Carolina as part of the unified judicial system. Pursuant to Article V authority, the Supreme Court disciplines municipal judges for violations of the Code of Judicial Conduct. See, e.g., In the Matter of Martin, 315 S.C. 370, 434 S.E.2d 262 (1993); In the Matter of Derrick, 301 S.C. 367, 352 S.E.2d 180 (1990). And the Supreme Court maintains oversight over the Municipal Court and its judges as it does any other court in the unified judicial system. The municipal courts possess jurisdiction to try all cases arising under the ordinances of the municipality as well as "all such powers, duties and jurisdiction in criminal cases made under state law and conferred upon magistrates."

In an opinion dated July 25, 2002, we addressed the question of whether the Clerk of Court for the City of Westminster could also serve as the Victim's Advocate for the Town. Therein, we noted that "[p]ublic employees must be above reproach and avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest in carrying out their duties.” Applying that standard, we concluded that the individual should not serve in such dual capacity. We concluded as follows:

[i]n this case, there would be least the appearance of a conflict of interest in acting as Municipal Court Clerk and also serving as Victims’ Advocate for the Town of Westminster. A clerk of court, when performing the duties of clerk, is an arm of the court itself. See, Thornton v. Atlantic Coast Line R. Co., 196 S.C. 316, 13 S.E.2d 442, 446 (1941), quoting Chafee and Co. v. Rainey, 21 S.C. 11, 18 [“The clerk is the officer of the court, and any mere ministerial act he does by the order of the court is the act of the court itself.”] The municipal court is part of the unified judicial system created by Article V of the State Constitution. See Op. Atty. Gen., August 13, 1996 and Op. Atty. Gen., August 27, 1996. The court is constitutionally required to remain “neutral and detached” in the performance of its exclusively criminal functions, such as the issuance of warrants. See, Shadwick v. City of Tampa, 407 U.S. 345, 92 S.Ct. 2119, 32 L.Ed.2d 738 (1972). While the Clerk of the Municipal Court may not be a “judicial officer” in the technical sense inasmuch as the Clerk is answerable to the City Administrator, see Op. Atty. Gen., August 27, 1996, still the Clerk, as an arm of the Municipal Court, must maintain the appearance of neutrality. Where the Clerk of Court of Westminster, whose duties relate almost exclusively to the administration of the municipal court, also performs the duties of the Victims’ Advocate, it could be alleged that an inherent conflict of interest exists in such a relationship. A municipal court possesses only criminal jurisdiction. Clearly, the Victims’ Advocate for the Town would serve victims of crime in cases coming before a municipal court whose clerk is one and the same individual. In such instance, even if there is not an actual conflict, there is the appearance of a conflict. Accordingly, I would advise against the same individual performing both functions.

The same reasoning would apply with greater force to the municipal judge than even the Clerk of the Municipal Court. This is the case particularly where the municipal judge is performing other duties as a town employee related to law enforcement – particularly police clerk – which may well present the situation of an actual conflict with her duties as a municipal judge.

Indeed, we have recognized that a municipal judge also holding the position of town administrator could present a conflict of interest situation. In Op. S.C. Atty. Gen., October 18, 1988, we advised that [a] municipal judge would be subject to the code of Judicial Conduct, as found in Rule 33 of the Supreme Court Rules. Due to the possible appearance of a conflict of interest by having a town employee also serve as municipal judge, it might be prudent to obtain an advisory opinion on the ramifications of the Code of Judicial Conduct from the Advisory Committee on standards of Judicial Conduct.

September 11, 2003

It follows from both of these opinions that an employee of the Town who is also serving as Municipal Judge could be deemed to be in a conflict of interest situation.

Conclusion

We agree with your conclusion that it presents a conflict of interest or, at the very least, the appearance of a conflict, for a town employee also to serve as a Municipal Judge. This is particularly true where, as here, at least some of the duties involved as a Town employee touch upon or relate to law enforcement. Serving as clerk for the police department could well present a clear conflict of interest to one's duties as a municipal judge. A municipal judge must maintain the appearance of being neutral and detached. Such neutrality may well be compromised (in appearance or fact) when a town employee is also municipal judge and certain of the employee's duties involve serving as a clerk for the police department.

Very truly yours,

Robert D. Cook
Assistant Deputy Attorney General
