RE: State v. Roger Sentell Littlejohn
Information about the Case
20 days for your statement – Refer to the enclosed document
from the court of appeals

Dear Mr. Littlejohn:

Enclosed for your review is the letter from the Court of Appeals. You have 20 days to explain in an arguable basis for the appeal. See that I got this reopened due to you being moved from one prison to another and our lack of communication. Please ask for help when you get this letter. You must submit the reason for appeal. If you fail to submit your reason, your appeal will be dismissed.

I have sent emails and letters for Office of Indigent defense to take over your appeal and emailed counsel in the prison as well to have you sign paperwork. I am having trouble as well and not sure if they have taken over. Either way I am trying to get this stop done for you.

Just a reminder, you have 1 year to file a PCR against me.

Sincerely,

J. Zachary (Zack) Farr

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Roger Sentell Littlejohn, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2025-002515

ORDER

On February 27, 2026, this court dismissed this appeal. On March 6, 2026, Appellant's counsel filed a motion to reinstate, indicating Appellant had not had an opportunity to provide this court with an arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal. After careful consideration, we reinstate the appeal. Within twenty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall provide this court with an arguable basis that there is an issue preserved for appeal. Failure to provide such an explanation will result in dismissal of the appeal. Upon receipt of Appellant's correspondence, this court will determine whether the appeal may proceed in accordance with Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
