V.
James B. Curry, Appellant.

SC Court of Appeals

"Appellant would like to address the Court, and say that the S.C. Court of Appeals relief rate would be far more - greater, if the S.C. Appellate defense lawyer's would stop - intentionally filing frivolous briefs such as the one Jessica Saxon submitted on appellants behalf dated July 7th, 2025. "See Brief. Note. the only argument Ms. Saxon needed to argue to kill the lower Courts Contempt order, would have been to submit appellants pro-se Motion to dismiss pursuant to subject matter jurisdiction, and Chief Revels arrest, in the designation of matter to be included in the record - on appeal, and argued that the Court abused its discretion by - holding appellant in Contempt on the basis that appellants motion was frivolous. "See Tr. pg# 16, "Therefore, appellant respectfully request that the Court review this entire matter, and order the lower Court to schedule a hearing on appellants Motion, "Because appellants Motion dated. 6-7-24. is 100% not Frivolous."

Revels was chief in Great Falls. Revels
left Great Falls
late last year after Richard Smith was elected sheriff
to succeed
Smith as chief in Port Lawn.

He turned himself in to SLED agents Wednesday morning, according to a press release and a jail log.
He is charged with one count of misconduct in office. Chester County Magistrate Dianne Moore
set a $5,000 personal recognizance bond, so he was

According to a release from
SLED, Revels,
42, of 161 Forest Lakes Circle, Great Falls, was charged with misconduct
in office (common law).
Investigators say Revels
stole about $100 of $200
