Subject: Appellate Case No. 2024-000643 — Emergency Motion for Leave to File Supplemental Pro Se Submission

To all recipients:

Please find attached for filing and preservation in Appellate Case No. 2024-000643 the following documents, dated April 3, 2026:

Emergency Motion for Leave to File Supplemental Pro Se Submission Addressing Constitutional Want of Subject-Matter Jurisdiction, or in the Alternative to Accept the Attached Submission for Preservation Purposes;

Appellant's Supplemental Pro Se Submission Addressing Constitutional Want of Subject-Matter Jurisdiction and Involuntary Plea;

Table of Authorities;

Certificate of Service; and the limited exhibits referenced in the submission.

This appeal has already been submitted during the April 2026 term on the record and briefs, without oral argument. Because I remain represented by counsel of record, and because the constitutional jurisdiction issue has still not been squarely presented by counsel before decision, I am submitting the attached emergency motion seeking leave for the limited purpose stated therein, or in the alternative requesting that the attached submission be accepted or retained for preservation purposes.

This is not intended as an ordinary pro se merits filing in disregard of prior correspondence from the Court. It is an emergency effort to ensure that a constitutional want of subject-matter jurisdiction apparent on the face of the record, together with the related involuntary-plea issue, is unmistakably presented before disposition, or at minimum preserved in writing before decision.

Respectfully,

Russell Lewis Walker
