Re: Raymond Carter v. Donnie Myers
Appellate Case No. 2013-000449

Dear Mr. Carter:

We have received your motion regarding the late service and filing of the record on appeal and we have received the appellant's final brief. Be advised that the motion to dismiss that is currently pending in this matter holds all filing deadlines in abeyance; therefore, your motion to allow the late service of the record is considered moot and will not be considered by the Court.

You are further advised that the appellant's final brief should be served and filed no more than twenty days from service of the record on appeal, pursuant to Rule 211, SCACR. Therefore, the filing of your final brief is premature and it is being returned to you.

Very truly yours,
