State of South Carolina.....Respondent

AMENDED MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL

AND RECALL THE REMITTITUR

Comes now Gabriel Rios, pro-se, move this Court pursuant to Rule 240 SCACR, to relieve counsel in the above number case and to recall the remittitur. The Petitioner has request an extension of time to file a petition for rehearing, and the court said that I am represented by counsel, no action will taken on pro-se filing, however, Appellate counsel advise me by letter that their office have closed there file upon the receipt of this opinion. See letter dated February 25, 2026, AND March 11, 2026 respectfully. This motion to relieve counsel should have been made by Appellate Counsel or is it my mistake? Counsel told me yesterday 3/17/26 that need put a motion in to relieved counsel.

On March 13, 2026, the Remittitur was sent to the lower court, however, I would like to recall the remittitur until a ruling is made in this matter, and also a motion for rehearing was filed with this court and I need instruction how to proceed since the court of appeals said that I am represented by counsel.

CONCLUSION

The Appellant prays that this court would receive counsel and recall the remittitur.
