

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

First Class Barbers, LLC, Appellant,

v.

Douglas Family Partnership, LLP, FMO Real Estate,
LLP/Fairway Outdoor Advertising, and Lamar
Advertising Company, Defendants,

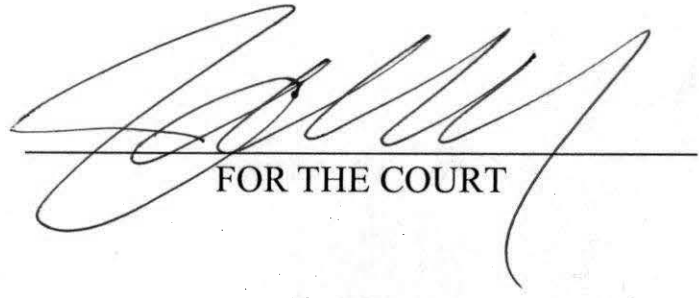

of which Douglas Family Partnership, LLP and Lamar
Advertising Company are the Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2025-002312

ORDER

On November 14, 2025, Appellant filed its notice of appeal stating it was appealing a September 24, 2025 order. On December 18, 2025, the court sent Appellant a deficiency letter for, among other things, failure to include the order appealed from and the date Appellant received written notice of the order. To date, Appellant has not corrected these noted deficiencies. On November 26, 2025, Appellant filed motions to (1) appoint or reinstate counsel, (2) "reinstate appeal," and (3) "address the improper withdrawal of counsel and request for relief." The court denied in part and declined to consider in part Appellant's motions. Respondent filed a motion to dismiss for failure to timely appeal. Appellant did not file a return. On February 10, 2026, Appellant's counsel filed a motion to be relieved as counsel. After careful consideration, we grant Respondent's motion to dismiss.¹ The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

¹ In light of our decision to dismiss this appeal, we take no action on counsel's motion to be relieved.

FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina

FILED
Mar 19 2026

cc:

Max Thomas Hyde, Jr., Esquire
Samantha Nicholson Larkins, Esquire
Troy Edward Nance, Esquire
Monier Mufid Abusoft, Esquire
Sarah P. Spruill, Esquire