

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Diana Janura f/k/a Diana Bright, Appellant, v.

Craig Bright, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2025-002577

ORDER

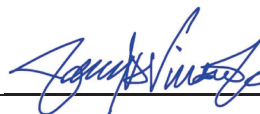

After careful consideration of Appellant's March 24, 2026 "emergency motion to stay," which we construe as a petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied without prejudice.¹
