

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Jamarcus Tyrone Gregory, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2026-000046

---

ORDER

---

Robert Asher Watson, Esquire, filed a motion asking this court to relieve him as counsel for Appellant. No return was filed. In his motion, Mr. Watson states the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense also appointed Steve R. Cureton, Esquire, to represent Appellant. Mr. Cureton was appointed after the trial verdict but before the circuit court published the sentence and is included as counsel on appeal. After careful consideration, we grant the motion and relieve Robert Asher Watson, Esquire, as counsel for Appellant. We direct Mr. Watson to provide all materials related to Appellant's representation to Mr. Cureton upon request.

This appeal is no longer held in abeyance. Within fifteen days of the date of this order, Steve R. Cureton, Esquire, shall file a copy of a letter showing that he ordered the transcript from the court reporter.
