Debbie:

We have printed out what we understand is Detective Coker's entire file off of the disk provided by the Attorney General's Office. It appears to be of much better quality. We will be checking these materials against what is in the Appendix since we understand there is a discrepancy. We will be doing the same against the exhibit on file in the Orangeburg Clerk of Court's office since it was represented to be the Detective's entire file at the time it was introduced. I will update you again Tuesday when you return.
