

RECEIVED

Apr 17 2026

SC Court of Appeals

From: Tony Williams
To: Court Of Appeals Filings
Cc: Melling, Andrew; Michelle Gaston
Subject: SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI
Date: Friday, April 17, 2026 10:44:26 AM

 EXTERNAL EMAIL: This email originated from outside the organization. Please exercise caution before clicking any links or opening attachments. ***

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

Tony Williams, Appellant,

v.

Lowe's Home Centers, LLC, et al., Respondents.

Appellate Case No.: 2026-000079

(Lower Court: 2025-CP-07-01666)

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Appellant Tony Williams, appearing pro se, hereby supplements his Notice of Intent filed on April 13, 2026, in response to the administrative update to the Appellate Case Management System (C-Track) dated April 16, 2026.

1. Rule 221(b) Compliance: This supplemental notice is filed to ensure full compliance with Rule 221(b), SCACR, confirming that the Stay of Remittitur remains in effect following the "Rehearing Denied" entry of April 16, 2026.
2. Exposing Jurisdictional Conflict: Appellant provides actual notice that Respondents' counsel (listed as "Former/Status N" on the official record) is attempting to bypass this Court's jurisdiction by scheduling a hearing in the lower court (Case 01666) for May 5, 2026, while this matter is pending before the Supreme Court.
3. Reservation of Rights: Appellant continues to seek review of the $30,000,000.00 Default and the Extrinsic Fraud involving the unauthorized practice of law and identity misrepresentation of counsel.

Respectfully Submitted,

s/ Tony Williams

April 17, 2026