Re: State v. Christopher Shippy, Appellate Case No.: 2011-197607

Dear Ms. Allen:

I received your letter dated December 11, 2013 regarding the above-referenced case. Please find enclosed two printed emails in which we requested extensions. The first is dated October 7, 2013 and the second is dated November 6, 2013. I have also enclosed the emailed consents from the Attorney General's Office for your convenience. However, our office never received orders from the Court concerning the extension requests. If the Court determines, after receipt of these emailed extension requests, I need to file a motion to file the brief out of time, I will do so. I await further instructions on this matter.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
Appellate Defender
