

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

AKPA Chemical US, Inc., Appellant,

v.

Tunc Eren, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-002032

ORDER

As a panel began to review this case it became apparent the parties had not followed Rule 211, SCACR, and that there were numerous and substantial differences between their initial briefs and final briefs. We sent a letter identifying the deficiency.

This appeal is dismissed due to Appellant's failure to conform its final briefs to Rule 211, SCACR, and this Court's letter dated March 31, 2026. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.
