9. DEATH CERTIFICATION of Nancy Elizabeth. Wingo Powers, Who Died on January 3, 2023, Id at See: Exhibit E

10. PROBATE COURT MEMO TO FILE:) on May 20, 2025, From Cammie Campbell Case No: 2023ES4000120, Re: Nancy Elizabeth. Wingo Powers, that I called and confirmed with the Fairfield County Probate Court that the estate of Robert Edwards Powell was opened on June 22nd 2023, With case # 2023ES4000120, Jennifer Powers Is appointed as personal representative, a will was presented and admitted, Naming Jennifer Powers as sole devisee, The Interstate Heirs of the estate are grandchildren, Nancy Martin, Donald Lannan. Jr, Russell Cox Carmel and Elizabeth Ann Melvin. Id at See: Exhibit F

11. The Court take judicial notice that A devisee is someone Named in a will to receive real property — land, a house, a commercial building, or any other immovable asset. The term comes from centuries of property law that drew a sharp line between real estate and everything else a person owns. If you’ve encountered “devisee” while reading a will or probate documents, it simply means the person the will-maker chose to inherit a specific piece of real property.

12. See: S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-106. Representation; disclaimer by intestate beneficiary. If representation is called for by this Code, the estate is divided into as many equal shares as there are surviving heirs in the nearest degree of kinship and deceased persons in the same degree who left issue who survive the decedent, each surviving heir in the nearest degree receiving one share and the share of each deceased person in the same degree being divided among his issue in the same. manners. If an interest created by intestate succession is disclaimed, the beneficiary is not treated as having predeceased the decedent for purposes of determining the generation at which the division of the estate is to be made.

13. Nancy Elizabeth. Wingo Powers. who died on January 3, 2023,

- She left a Holographic (handwritten) Will
- This will though be never probated.

14. Tina Kinsey filed Intestate beneficiary., 2023, Case No-2023ES4000120 with Case No-2023ES1200136

15. The assets never go to grandchildren. because the assets go directly to the other owners.

Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in that person's own name without joining the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the United States so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the United States. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

17. If an interest created by intestate succession is disclaimed, the beneficiary is not treated as having predeceased the decedent for purposes of determining the generation at which the division of the estate is to be made.

When siblings are legally determined to be the surviving kin highest in the order of succession, they will inherit the assets in their

Decreased sibling's Estate. And they inherit it equally. If there is One surviving sibling, the entire Estate will go to them. If there are four surviving siblings, each sibling will inherit 25% of the Estate.

1. Siblings of Late Robert E Powers.
2. Siblings of Late Nancy Elizabeth. Wingo Powers") Deceased
3. Bobbie Jean Powers (Lannan) Deceased
4. Martha Ann Powers (Melvin) Deceased
5. Ronald Charles Powers) Deceased
6. Jennifer D. Powers,") Last surviving sibling
7. By the Probate Rule of South Carolina.....

18. Also See: S.C. R. Civ. P. 17 (a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest.

That the Appellants, Pro 'Se Jennifer D. Powers is the real party in Interest.

19. That the Learned Lower Court has not followed the proper procedure, and this has resulted into miscarriage of justice.

20. That the orders passed by the Learned Lower Court are violative of the principles of justice, equity and good conscience.

21. That the orders passed by the Learned Lower Court are contrary to the provisions of law and the principles of natural justice.

22. That the Learned Lower Court has failed to consider the evidence on record in a judicious manner.

23. That the findings arrived by the Learned Lower Court are not supported by the evidence on record.

24. That the necessary issues of law and fact have not been framed and answered by the Learned Lower Court.

25. That the Learned Lower Court ought to have decided the matter under appeal in favor of this appellant.

26. That the Learned Lower Court ought to have held that the Respondent had no right or authority to terminate the tenancy of this Appellant.

27. That the Learned Lower Court was at an error in holding that the suit premises are required by the respondent for his personal bonafide occupation.

28. That the Learned Lower Court was wrong in holding that this appellant has acquired any other suitable accommodation.

29. That the Learned Lower Court has having answered the first issue in the negative decided the rest of the issues against the appellant, which itself is improper and illegal.

30. That the Learned Lower Court has in a very summary manner and roundabout fashion tried to interpret the concept of acquisition of other suitable accommodation.

31. That the Learned Lower Court, while deciding the application for interim injunction, has, in fact, decided the suit itself, and this is contrary to the provisions of law.

32. That the Learned Lower Court has misinterpreted all the relevant provisions of law as laid down in the U.S. Const. art. III, § 1. And Due Process Clause secured by the Fourteenth Amendment and to the United States Constitution, and incorporated against states and state actors via the South State Constitution...Act.

33. That the Learned Lower Court has not considered the very fact that the balance of convenience was only in favour of this appellant,

34. That the order is dated April 9th, 2026, while its certified copy was applied for on April 20th, 2026, the same was delivered on April 20th, 2026, and hence, the appeal filed today is well within limitation.

REASONS WHY THE JUSTICE COURT RULED INCORRECTLY

The Hon, Brian M. Gibbons Civil Case NO. 2025CP2000275,

57. “The Court take judicial notice that In South Carolina, jurisdiction, or the basic authority of a judge to hear and exercise Judgment of a matter is based upon three considerations: territorial jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction, and the amount in controversy, ($300,-000.

Territorial jurisdiction for each magistrate extends throughout the county in which he is appointed in both civil and criminal matters.

To understand the latter two determinations of jurisdiction, subject matter jurisdiction and amount in controversy, one must look to S.C. Code Ann. §§ 22-3-10, and 22-3-20. Section 22-3-10, as limited by § 22-3-20, sets out magisterial jurisdiction over fourteen areas of civil subject matter as follows:

58. Sherer v. Cullen , 481 F 946. We could go on, quoting court decision after court decision, however, the Constitution itself answers our question ♦ Can a government legally put restrictions on the rights of the American people at any time, for any reason? The answer is found in Article Six of the U.S. Constitution: Miranda

v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 426, 491; 86 S. Ct. 1603 "Where rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no 'rule making' or legislation which would abrogate them."

59. Supreme Court South Carolina Code SECTION 14-3-410. Court of record; public inspection of records.

- The Supreme Court shall be a court of record, and the records thereof shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the citizens of the State or other people interested. The records shall be kept in a manner prescribed by the justices of the court.

WHEREFORE, the appellant, therefore, prays that for the reasons stated above and as may be argued at the time of hearing, the record and proceedings be called for, this appeal be allowed, the orders under appeal be set aside and quashed, and orders deemed just and proper be kindly passed, for which act of grace and favor, this appellant as bounden in duty shall ever pray.
