

RECEIVED

Apr 22 2026

S.C. SUPREME COURT

From: Ken Moorehead
To: Supreme Court Filings
Subject: attempt writ of cert 04/22/2026 Wednesday
Date: Wednesday, April 22, 2026 2:08:15 PM

 EXTERNAL EMAIL: This email originated from outside the organization. Please exercise caution before clicking any links or opening attachments. ***

Appellant: Pro SE Ken Moorehead

Vs

Appellee: State of South Carolina

Case #

Attempt at Writ of Certiorari

I, Ken Moorehead ask the following questions of law or Federal Questions

1. Does a person or defendant have a right to have a fair, impartial jury trial before being held for twenty-six months without release?
2. Is this prejudice to the defendant US constitution Amendment six, the Speedy trial act, South Carolina Constitution Article 1 section 3 # 6, # 9 # 14 speedy trial # 16 libel # # 20 right to bear arms, # 22 property # 24 victims bill of rights.
3. Does a person have a right to have a trial or due process before they lose everything they have?
4. Does a person have a right to have a trial or do process before they lose their reputation or character or standing in the community?
5. Is it not Cruel and unusual punishment to hold a person without release incarcerated or in jail without a right to fair, impartial jury trial or without a trial?
6. Is it not unfair to not have a trial or due process when pleaded not guilty for 26 months including days before the trial? US constitution amendment 5, 8, 6, 14.
7. Is it not unfair, cruel, unusual to tell a defendant after being held for twenty-six months without process, due process or trial they will have to wait at least another year for trial this been 3 years of being held?
8. Is it not unfair for anyone or a defendant to know choice or forced to take a plea without any way to be released, or have a trial or being taken to trial?
9. Does the forced plea also not violate the law of self-incrimination?
10. Does not violate the law of a freely given confession or admission even if an

Alford plea?

11. should a person who has been held for twenty-six months told be another year to trial still be entitled to RELIEF AND MERCY still be entitled to a trial, due process of law, to confront witnesses, examine, cross examine, determine truth, lies and have a fair, impartial jury trial?

Appellant: Pro SE Ken Moorehead

Vs

Appellee: State of South Carolina

Case #

Attempt at Writ of Certiorari

I, Ken Moorehead ask the following questions of law or Federal Questions

12. Should a person not be allowed to stay on plea bargain without going back to jail or incarceration be allowed to ask for trial, due process, without further Cruel and unusual punishment? US constitution amendment one,5,6, 8,14 and SC constitution

13.later question if person wins a trial should they not be entitled to full freedom privileges, just compensation, personal injury, and damages, and financial loses?

14. later should they not be entitled to compensation for the cruel, unusual punishment, including assaults, lose of bottom of teeth including damages done to their reputation, character, or standing in the United States, The states local and the community?

Ken Moorehead

General Delivery

505 North Kings Highway

Myrtle Beach, SC 29577

843-995-6290

Awqq125@yahoo.com