RE: Dr. Lad Santiago, Appellant v. Oscar Avila Hernandez, et.al., Respondents
Appellate Case No. 2024-001239

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This is to inform you that the aforementioned Appellant has mailed via the US Postal Service Appellant's Final Initial Brief and Appellant's Final Reply Brief on Tuesday, November 24, 2025, as per and in compliance with the Extension of Time due date of December 2, 2025.

I have hereby attached Appellant's USPS receipt as proof of mailing for the bound copies of Appellant's Final Initial Brief and Appellant's Final Reply Brief, as well as a set of these documents in unbound format, all of which have been signed. Also enclosed within these documents are the cover letter to the Court and the proof of service upon the Respondents' Attorney.

This receipt shows tracking as proof of shipment to both The South Carolina Court of Appeals as well as to the Respondents' Attorney. As per the USPS's statement on this receipt, these packages should arrive at both destinations aforementioned on Monday, December 1, 2025.

Additionally, enclosed in the aforementioned package to the Court is a cover letter and a returned envelope that was apparently returned in error to the Appellant by the US Postal Service of correspondence sent by the Appellant to the Court. The contents of this returned envelope are self-explanatory and were with regard to the payment of Appellant's last motion of October 27, 2025, and included check #1203 in the amount of $50.00.

Please confirm receipt of this correspondence.

Sincerely,

/s/ Dr. Lad Santiago
