Re: Marion Wade Frye #375354 v. United States (2)
Appellate Case No. 2025-002449

Dear Mr. Frye:

There are outstanding deficiencies remaining in this case.

The Court has received your motion to file outside of time on April 21, 2026. A proof of service on all parties is required.

Your letter to the court reporter manager received March 25, 2026, requires a proof of service showing service on all parties as well as the Office of Court Administration was served as required by Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Your motion for an emergency complaint requires a proof of service showing all parties were served. The motion was not accompanied by a filing fee. The filing fee for motions is $50.00.

You must cure these deficiencies within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your motions may not be considered and this case may be dismissed.

If you make frivolous filings with this Court, you may subject yourself to sanctions pursuant to Rule 269, SCACR, up to and including refusals to consider any further filings without signature of an attorney ensuring compliance with Rule 267(b), SCACR.

Very truly yours,
