Special to the Reporter

Veterans Day is not only an occasion to celebrate those soldiers who have fallen, but also those who still serve.

The Great Falls High School JROTC program staged a Veterans Day Ceremony to honor those veterans still with us today, not only for the veterans in our community but for those from all around our nation. We reserved special seats in our auditorium for our veterans who attended the ceremony to show that they are special.

As guests showed up, they were asked and escorted to the theater depending on their status. Once 7 p.m. hit, we began the ceremony. Our color guard presented the colors as Courtney Knight sang the National Anthem.
