Dear Clerk's Office,

Following your instructions, I have attached the documents directly as physical PDF files rather than links. I have separated the filing into three (3) parts across three emails to ensure the file sizes are compatible with the Court's transmission limits and to prevent any opening errors.

This is Part 2 of the filing for Case No. 2026-000348, which contains the Emergency Writ of Mandamus. Thank you for your patience and assistance. I am sorry for any inconvenience.

Please let me know if this attachment is accessible.

Respectfully,

/s/ Ubong Christopher Ubokudom, D.O.

Dear Clerk's Office,

Following your instructions regarding file attachments, I am resubmitting the Record on Appeal for Case No. 2026-000348.

To ensure the file sizes remain within the Court's transmission limits and to prevent any technical errors, I have separated the Record into four (4) parts, which I will send in four separate emails.

This is Email 1 of 4, containing Record on Appeal – Part 1. The remaining three parts will follow immediately. Thank you for your patience and assistance. I am sorry for any inconvenience.

Please let me know if this attachment is successfully received and accessible.
