Madame Chief Deputy Clerk,

I am writing in response to your letter from April 15, 2026. Please, I beg you, do not dismiss this case if my attorney, Ms. Cydney Evonne Clark, Esq., does not comply with the Order(s) of the Court.

I am incarcerated right now, which is why I filed the Appeal in the first place. But that also means that I am restricted as to what I can do with respect to this Appeal. It also means that I am at the mercy of my attorney; and, she does not support this Appeal for some reason. The proof of that is the fact that she didn't follow the very simple instructions from the Court in your first letter.

I look forward to presenting this Appeal to the Court, as it poses a timely, and highly relevant issue for the Court's consideration. To that end, I simply ask that I not be punished because, or if, my attorney is non-compliant with the Orders of this Court.

If I was not incarcerated, I would have served the Certificate and Proof of Service personally, weeks ago. Thank you for your consideration on this matter!

Sincerely,

Robert Southard
Appellant

Re: The State v. Robert Southard
Appellate Case No. 2026-000403

Dear Counsel:

The Court received your attempted deficiency corrections on April 8, 2026; however, you still must provide a proof of service showing service upon the respondent. You must serve and file the proof of service within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, or this appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

Catherine Harrison, deputy
CLERK
