RE: Alonzo C. Jeter, III, v State of South Carolina et al
Appellate Case No. 2025-000762

Dear Mr. Kitchings:

On or about March 30, 2026, I provided pages which were intended to cure the deficiencies of the Record on Appeal. (I also attempted to provide the same via a digital filing (submission)).

I write for the confirmation from your office that the deficiency is deemed cured and that ~~that~~ there is no further action(s) needed on my part.

I certainly thank your office for your cooperation and understanding as this has been an extremely difficult task to accomplish due to the recent policy changes made within the South Carolina Dept of Correction which causes prisoners to depart from their active case filings and records thereof.

Sincerely,
Alonzo C. Jeter, III (Please return a file-stamped copy of today's correspondence).
