Re: Re: Isaac Smith, Jr. v. Dax Lewis
Appellate Case No. 2026-000683

Dear Sir/Madam:

Please be advised that the appellant has constantly call the Office of Court Administration in reference to the phone number of Court reporter Stacy Johnson who was the court reporter for the above-refenced appeal in the Circuit Court. Her information did not include a telephone number. I made contact through the email address listed land finally received a response via email on April 22, 2026. She acknowledged my contact and said she was busy and would contact me later.

I want the record to reflect that I made an earnest attempt to get the transcript and that I am not causing any delay in the proceedings. I have yet to receive the court reporter's telephone number and a telephone contact from either the court reporter or the office of court admiration contacts person who I have left several messages.

I have exercised all due diligence in my efforts to get the transcript and I ask the court to acknowledge my effort and proceed with respect to my attempts to adhere to the law.

I you have any question, I can be contacted at the above-refenced address or my phone number of (323)-295-9500.

Sincerely,

Isaac Smith, Jr.
