SC Court of Appeals

I'm in Kirkland Rte am not allowed to go to the Law library so I am not sure what Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) is but my appeal was denied because of it! How may I ask is it okay for a solicitor to lie in court, And I tell my lawyer to object and he did not, not a ground for an appeal? I have never been charged, arrested, or sentenced to an assault by mob, yet the solicitor said that I was convicted in 2014 of assault by mob then he said that I was sentence to an POA in 1998 for CSC 3rd degree. When in fact I was sentenced in Family Court in 1996 as a Juvenile for CSC 3rd not to exceed my 21st Birthday. It was part of the plea for it to remain on my juvenile record. I was sentence to 13 yrs. Because of my Criminal record. Which was not correctly stated in the court room. Will you please look into

This matter? I have also written SLED for my Criminal history and the Clerk of Court for my transcript. Do I need to file a PCR? What step should I take next? Thank you for your time and Patience in this matter.

God Bless You

And Yours,

Patrick
