Citimortgage, Inc., }

Case No. : 2009-CP-38-01662

Plaintiff(s), }

AMENDED
NOTICE OF APPEAL

v. }

King David Corbitt, }

RECEIVED
DEC 10 2013
SC Court of Appeals

Defendant(s). }

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that I King David Corbitt, the above-named Defendant appeals the Supplemental Master-In-Equity’s Judgment of Foreclosure and Sale imposed by the Honorable James “Jay” B. Jackson, Jr., Master-In-Equity Judge on October 23, 2013, wherein I the Defendant, King David Corbitt requested a Common Law Hearing and a Motion for Continuance and the Judge told me that he has never heard of a Common Law Hearing and proceeded with the foreclosure sale of my property. The Judge also denied my Motion for Continuance.

I the Defendant King David Corbitt, at this time request an Appeal on the grounds of:

My 7th Amendment of the United States Constitution which clearly states that any controversial exceeding twenty ($20.00) must be adjudicated by a jury trial.

I am requesting that the Court of Appeals overturn the foreclosure decree because at my hearing on October 23, 2013, I requested a Common Law Hearing and the Judge told me that he has never heard of a Common Law Hearing and proceeded with the Order of foreclosure sale of my property. The Judge also denied my Motion for Continuance as I had other issues to bring up at my hearing and was unable to do so because I was not in a Common Law Court. Under the United States Constitution, I am entitled to request a Common Law Hearing as well as a trial by jury as it is my legal rights under the United States Constitution and I feel that my legal rights have been unjustly denied. This administrative Order is void because it has impeded my constitutional rights of the 7th Amendment of the United States Constitution.

In conclusion, the judgment that is accompanying this amended complaint, is what the Clerk of Court gave me; in which you can see that the judge scratched through an old date and wrote in a new date given order to sale my property.

Respectfully submitted,

King David Corbitt - Defendant
