

Barbara Hannah Rogers
2988 Wild Turkey Drive
Effingham, SC 29541
Phone: 843-230-8200

Date: 4/20/2026

Clerk of Court
United States District Court
District of South Carolina

RECEIVED
APR 30 2026
SC Court of Appeals

RE: EMERGENCY FILING – REQUEST FOR IMMEDIATE JUDICIAL REVIEW

Dear Clerk:

Please accept the enclosed Emergency Motion for Temporary Restraining Order.

This matter is extremely urgent. A Sheriff's eviction is scheduled for:

May 12, 2026 at 10:00 AM

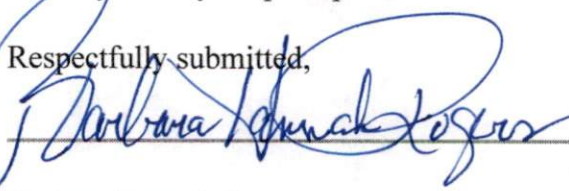

Plaintiff was never properly served in the underlying foreclosure action and has been deprived of due process.

Without immediate intervention by this Court, Plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm, including loss of her home and personal property.

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this matter be immediately brought to the attention of a judge for expedited review.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this emergency.

Respectfully submitted,

15/

Barbara Hannah Rogers
Pro Se

EMERGENCY SUMMARY FOR THE COURT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this brief summary in support of her Emergency Motion for Temporary Restraining Order:

- A Sheriff's eviction is scheduled for May 12, 2026
- Plaintiff was never served with the foreclosure complaint
- A judgment was entered without jurisdiction
- Plaintiff had no opportunity to be heard
- Plaintiff has filed an appeal and motion to stay in state court

Under clearly established United States Supreme Court and Fourth Circuit precedent, a judgment entered without proper service is void and cannot be enforced.

If eviction proceeds, Plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreparable harm, including loss of her home and personal property.

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court issue an immediate Temporary Restraining Order to preserve the status quo and protect her constitutional rights.

RECEIVED

APR 30 2026

SC Court of Appeals