South Carolina Court of Appeals

Columbia, South Carolina 29211RE: Delores Holloway v. The South Carolina Ports Authority, et al.
Appellate Case No.: 2026-000074
Civil Action No.: 2025-CP-22-00085
Burr File No.: 0051302.0000008

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

Please be advised that I represent Appellant South Carolina Ports Authority (“Appellant”) in the above captioned appeal. According to Rule 208(a)(1), by our calculation¹ Appellant’s Initial Brief and Designation of Matter are currently due on or before Tuesday, May 14, 2026.

Appellant respectfully requests a thirty (30) day extension of this deadline on account of work-related and other time commitments. No previous extension has been requested by or granted to Appellant. If the Court grants this request for an extension, the new deadline for Appellant’s Initial Brief and Designation of Matter will be Monday June 15, 2026.

Additionally, Appellant’s check for the filing fee of $50.00 is being mailed to the Court. By copy of this letter, I am advising all counsel of record of this request.

Your courtesies and consideration of this matter are greatly appreciated.

[SIGNATURE ON FOLLOWING PAGE]

¹ Appellant received the transcript for the appealed orders on February 6, 2026. However, Appellant’s receipt of the transcript occurred during the pendency of the Court’s order holding these proceedings in abeyance until and unless the Court made a determination on appealability. See Court’s Correspondence Jan. 14, 2026. With that said, the deadline for the filing of Appellant’s Initial Brief and Designation of Matter began to run on April 14, 2026, which was the date the Court issued its non-dispositional ruling on appealability. See Order Dated April 14, 2026.

With best wishes and kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely,

Burr & Forman LLP
