Dear Ms. Kitchings,

Please be advised that I represent Appellant the South Carolina Ports Authority (“Appellant”) in the above-titled appeal. Enclosed, please find the $50.00 filing fee for the Appellant’s First Request for an Extension to File its Initial Brief and Designation of Matter, which Appellant filed with the Court on April 23, 2026.

All counsel of record have been provided a copy of this letter by email upon mailing.

Thank you for your careful attention to this matter. Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

With best wishes and kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely,

Burr & Forman LLP

Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1,000, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our Service Guide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.
