Re: The State v. Brooke A. Schmitz
Appellate Case No. 2026-001030

Dear Ms. Schmitz:

The Court received your request to withdraw the appeal. We are forwarding your correspondence to your attorney. Due to the prohibition against hybrid representation, we will take no further action on your request. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel.").

Very truly yours,

CLERK
