Re: Jeffrey P. Cepin v. Samet Corporation
Appellate Case No. 2025-002480

Dear Mr. Cepin:

Upon reviewing your attempted corrections of the appellant's initial brief filed on May 4, 2026, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this matter will be dismissed:

- The initial brief is not properly formatted pursuant to Rules 208(b) and 267, SCACR. Specifically, the cover of the brief shall contain only the caption. You may not include arguments on the caption. Additionally, the contents of the brief should include the table of contents and cases, statement of issues on appeal, statement of the case, standard of review, argument, and conclusion. You can find the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules online at <https://www.sccourts.org/resources/judicial-community/court-rules/>.
- The initial brief is not accompanied by a designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. You must file and serve a designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal pursuant to Rule 209, SCACR.
- The proofs of service you provided state that you served the "notice of appeal"; however, you must serve and file a proof of service showing that you served your initial brief.

Very truly yours,
