Thank you, Kimberly.

I see now this will take me more than a day. I needed to refresh my memory on the hearing.

It doesn't need to be rushed if you need a little more time. Within the next thirty days would be fine.

Hello, Ms. Manley,

Please go to the website and put in a formal transcript request. The link is below my signature block. I will honor the 2/20/2026 date and get it to you no later than tomorrow EOB, 5:00 p.m. I apologize that I haven't communicated. Unfortunately, it's because of my injury. I'm just getting back to transcript work this week.

I'll send the invoice with the transcript. Do you all need an estimate? It will be 3 pages more than the draft. I can get you an official estimate, if you like.

Thank you all so much for your patience and due diligence with me during this time,

Julia Emerson, CVR, RCP-M, CPC-M

Thank you for the update. We filed an appeal in this matter and needed to meet the deadline to request the transcript.

I hope you will begin to feel better soon.

Hello,

I do not know if you all have been noticed by me, but I fell and broke my hip Jan 15th. Recovery has been slow and painful.

I am attempting to work on transcripts beginning Monday, Feb 23rd. I can update you Monday on a timeline.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. I am doing my due diligence.

Thank you,

Julia Emerson

Julia:

In a previous email below, you provided us with a rough draft of a hearing held on December 9th at 9:00am in the above referenced matter. We are now requesting a completed copy of the transcript. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you.

Hi Kim,

I'm Julia. Attached is the rough draft from the WebEx. I think I may have gotten the names wrong, but what they said is 100.

Have a nice day,

Rebecca:

Jim Logan represented the Sheriff's Office in a hearing held Tuesday, December 9th at 9:00am. Jim needs a copy of the transcript beginning when the 2 attorneys began to argue via zoom. He couldn't hear them. Is this possible and can we rush it?

Thanks
