Re: SCFCU v. Richard Nathaniel Thames
Appellate Case No. 2024-001925

5/14/2026

Dear Honorable Justices,

I am writing to respectfully request the Court's approval for a motion to file a document out of time in the above-referenced case. Specifically, I am seeking an extension of fifteen (15) business days to complete the filing.

The reason for this request is that I received the letter (sent 5-4-2026) regarding sending the bound copies of the record on appeal and the final brief of appellant on 5-11-2026 leaving very little time to organize.

I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience caused and assure the Court that the delay is not due to neglect or disregard for the Court's rules. I am committed to promptly completing the filing and ensuring compliance moving forward.

Given the circumstances, I respectfully ask the Court to grant this motion and extend the deadline by fifteen (15) business days, which will allow me adequate time to finalize and submit the required documents.

Thank you very much for your understanding and consideration of this request.
Respectfully submitted,

Sincerely,
S/ Richard Thames
