RE: Greystone Homeowners Association, Inc. v. Contract Exteriors, LLC., et al.
Case No. 2022-CP-10-01859

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

This matter was heard the week of January 20, 2026, before The Honorable Judge Dale E. Van Slambrook in the Charleston County Court of Common Pleas. Upon completion of the Jury Trial, Plaintiff/Appellant requested the transcript of the trial on January 28, 2026, via the online Court Reporter Transcript Ordering and Tracking System (attached as Exhibit 1). Ms. Bickett contacted me via electronic mail on February 2, 2026, confirming she had received the transcript request; however, she would not be able to expedite the delivery of the transcript as requested (attached as Exhibit 2). Appellant confirmed via electronic mail on February 11, 2026, that they wished to proceed with the ordering of the transcript (attached as Exhibit 3). April 23, 2026, Ms. Bickett contacted Appellant and stated that the transcript was in processing, and she hoped to have it delivered withing a week to ten days (attached as Exhibit 4). To date, Appellant has not received the requested transcript.

Should you have any questions or require any additional information regarding this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ms. Blundy,

I received your request for a transcript of this trial. I estimate the cost to prepare this at the regular 60-day delivery rate will be about $3,770. Please confirm if this is acceptable and you would like me to proceed.

Your request was for expedited. I am unable to do it within 7 days as I'm currently in a murder trial and I have several transcripts ahead of this one, not to mention this is a sizable transcript and will take some time. However, I will get it to you as soon as I'm able. Thank you for your patience on this.

Ms. McKee,

I apologize for the delay. I've been in trial after trial since the beginning of the year. In fact, I've been in a trial every week. On top of that, my transcript load has been pretty massive, with a lot of them being trials so they're sizable. I've been working on them in the order they were received and working as quickly as I can.

That being said, I'm working on yours now and will have it to you as soon as humanly possible, hopefully within a week to ten days (but I'm definitely shooting for within that week timeframe). I apologize again for the delay and for my lack of communication. If you have any other questions, please let me know.

Thank you.
