Re: Your Case

Dear Mr. Alford:

Our office has received your affidavit of indigency; however, it is incomplete and unnotarized. If you wish for our office to be appointed to represent you on appeal, please answer the question highlighted on page 3 of the enclosed affidavit of indigency, have it notarized, and return it to me. Please return the affidavit in the stamped, pre-addressed envelope included with this letter by June 9, 2026. If we have not heard from you by then, we will assume that you have retained appellate counsel and will be closing your file.

Sincerely,
