ELEVENTH REPORT TO THE

PURSUANT TO ITS ORDER OF REMAND
DATED JUNE 26, 2025

SC SUPREME COURT

DEBENTURE CORPORATION PLC; CAPE INDUSTRIAL SERVICES GROUP LTD.; MOHED ALTRAD; ALTRAD UK LTD.; CAPE UK HOLDINGS NEWCO LTD.; ALTRAD SERVICES LTD., f/k/a CAPE INDUSTRIAL SERVICES LTD.; ALTRAD INVESTMENT AUTHORITY S.A.S.; SPARROWS OFFSHORE GROUP LTD.; HAWK BIDCO US INC.; ARRANCO US, LLC; SPARROWS OFFSHORE, LLC; THE SPARROWS GROUP, LLC,

Third-Party Defendants.

Pursuant to the South Carolina Supreme Court's Order of Remand in this matter, dated June 26, 2025, in which the Court asked that I submit monthly reports as to my progress in addressing the directives from the Court contained in its Remand Order, this will constitute my Eleventh Report.

Since my Tenth Report to this Court, I have continued to review materials concerning cases on the Asbestos Docket, including matters involving the trial or settlement resolution of cases in which a Receiver has been appointed in the matter. I have also continued to administer the Asbestos Trial Docket, which includes hearing pre-trial matters considering Petitions for the approval of settlements and performing all other administrative duties involving the trial of cases on the Asbestos Docket.

In my Tenth Report to this Court, I discussed petitions for the approval of settlements in Peggy B. Berley, et al., v. AECOM Energy & Construction Inc., et al., C/A No. 2023-CP-40-02840 and Shirley A. Jenkins, et al., v. Asbestos Corporation Ltd., et al., C/A No. 2024-CP-40-04703. I will not repeat the complete outline of this case, but it is a case in which the filing of bankruptcy by ACL in May of 2025, undisclosed to plaintiff's counsel resulted in an attempt by ACL's insurers to avoid payments pursuant to a settlement agreement with plaintiff's attorney and a complete release by the Berley family of all claims against ACL, all of which occurred before the bankruptcy. Pursuant to these settlements, Gallivan White & Boyd transferred settlement funds on behalf of the settling insurance companies to plaintiff's lawyer's trust accounts, and then claimed that these funds should be returned to Resolute, its claims manager. These insurers went so far as to attempt on two occasions to have the New York United States Bankruptcy Court, in which the Canadian Bankruptcy was recognized, issue orders prohibiting my Court under pain of sanction from conducting hearings regarding the distribution of the Berley funds. I am glad to report that ultimately the New York Bankruptcy Court withdrew any objection to my Court proceeding to order the distribution of the Berley settlement funds to the Berley family and to Josh Cagle's firm for their attorney's fees. With regards to the Jenkins case, which was settled by agreements by Ms. Melissa King for Resolute, the claims manager for the insurers in Jenkins of ACL, the defendant and the insurance companies have petitioned the New York Bankruptcy Court to prohibit this Court from approving the Jenkins settlements and dispersing funds. Plaintiff's counsel has agreed with defense counsel to pause its petition for distribution until further negotiation is had to attempt to resolve this matter.

In the several hearings I have conducted regarding the Berley and Jenkins settlements, I have repeatedly put upon the record my recognition that the attorneys for ACL and its insurers appearing before me have conducted themselves with complete adherence to the professional ethics standards for lawyers. Their clients, however, have not been candid with the plaintiffs or their lawyers. Ironically, the Canadian Bankruptcy of ACL was the result of a petition by these very insurers.

I continue to manage the Asbestos Docket, conduct pretrial hearings, and administer the trial blocks as indicated in my previous reports. I am pleased to report that the South Carolina Asbestos Receiverships continue to function productively and are being embraced by many of the insurers involved.

Respectfully submitted,

Chief Justice (Ret.) Jean Hoefer Toal
Presiding Circuit Court Judge
