RE: Thomas R. Irby, pro se, Appellant, Case No. 2010CP-23-1621
v. Bank of America NA and Roy C. Irby II, Respondents.

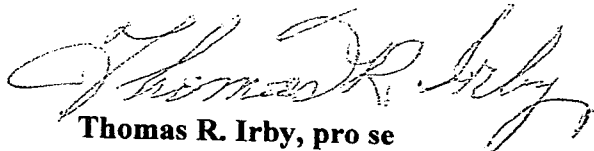

Dear Ms. Hudgens:

I received the Transcript on December 10, 2013. Upon review of a copy of the transcript printed on front and back of the pages there is a problem. Copies on the back may contain type that is extended too far to the right which would be the bound edge. Some of the type may be obscured.

Please provide me with a CD or Computer readable and editable copy of the transcript at your earliest convenience. If this request is not appropriate you may be able to send the alternate pages with the margins adjusted on the even numbered pages (2-4-6-8, etc.).

You may reach me by E-Mail at tripro@bellsouth.net and state the charge for the digital copy. I will forward payment by Bank Money Order immediately.

Thank you,

Thomas R. Irby, pro se
