RE: Bagley v. SCDPPPS, Docket No. 25-ALJ-15-0019-AP.

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I received an envelope today (6th) that was received on May 4th, stamped at the institution. However, the envelope contents contained received by the court filed April 28, 2026, and April 27, 2026, without a letter from your office. Nevertheless, my documents were deposited into the mail for postage to be paid, but the envelope face cover shows that the institutional mailroom received stamped April 21, 2026, in which the mailroom sent it via agency mail without my consent.

Nevertheless, it is not my fault that the notice of appeal was received April 28, 2026 in your office, because I enter the same in the box here on the 17th, and the mailroom official did not process the same until the 21st without my request to debit my account for postage via SCDC Form 10-14, that was submitted with the same.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience with the Appellate case number and any additional information required for me to know.

Thank you for your findings and consideration regarding this matter.

With kind regards,

Bernard Bagley
