SC Court of Appeals

1 MS. MURPHY: And also provide where it says
2 outstanding, if you see those, where it's saying if it's 3 an outstanding balance, that wouldn't equal up to the 4 $6000. It was 2012 to 2013. That still wouldn't make me
5 owe the state all that money. Even if they would have 6 took out all of that. I don't know who doing that math.
7 I don't understand what they're doing. I don't owe the 8 state anything. That was paid. That's why I sent you
9 the 2016 paperwork. If that was owed to the state, it
10 would have been paid to the state.

11 THE COURT: I don't see anything that you've handed 12 me --

13 MS. MURPHY: Can I show you, ma'am?

14 THE COURT: Can you hand her these documents,
15 please? And this. She can have that back as well.

16 MR. STUBBS: I'll say this, Your Honor, in regards
17 to my client. Sounds like there's roughly $2400. We got 18 $2000 here today that we'd like to pay into the court,
19 close out the matter. As far as documentation, my client
20 received just yesterday -- It shows that there's all the 21 money that's owed, all the arrears says state/foster care
22 arrears --

23 THE COURT: Yeah, I saw that. That pertains to her.

24 MS. MURPHY: No, sir. That's says zero. No, ma'am.

25 MR. STUBBS: Child -- It says child -- Here, I'll

Mr. Stubbs
STOLE and is Conspiring to Cover Up Crimes

False Allegations

1 just hand it to the court and let the court --

2 MS. MURPHY: Ma'am, you gave this back to me. It
