Case No. 2026-000826

Kimberly Brook Crissey, Respondent,

v.

Nicolas Jay Genest, Appellant.

Motion to Stay

COMES NOW the Appellant, Nicolas Jay Genest, appearing pro se, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court pursuant to Rule 241, South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, and applicable law, for an Order dated September 2, 2025 staying enforcement, pending the outcome of an appeal.

RECEIVED

MAY 28 2026

SC Court of Appeals

1. Procedural Background

There is currently a case that can or will have an effect on the appellant. That case number is 2021-DR-26-02006. The Defendant has filed a Notice of Appeal challenging this decision.

---

2. Legal Basis for This Motion

Filing an appeal alone does not automatically stay enforcement of the judgment. Therefore, Appellant respectfully seeks a stay under South Carolina law to prevent enforcement of the order pending appellate review.

To justify a stay, the Court considers the following factors:

1. Likelihood of success on the merits;
2. Irreparable harm to the movant if the stay is denied;
3. Lack of undue harm to the opposing party; and
4. Public interest favoring the stay.

RECEIVED
MAY 28 2026
SC Court of Appeals

---

3. Grounds Supporting This Motion

Appellant submits that the Family Court's order violates procedural due process protections under the Fourteenth Amendment and controlling U.S. Supreme Court precedent:

- In Turner v. Rogers, 564 U.S. 431 (2011), the Supreme Court held that before incarcerating a parent for failure to pay child support, the trial court must make an express finding as to the defendant's ability to pay, and must ensure fair procedures.
- In this case, the trial court failed to make any clear findings or factual explanation regarding Defendant's present ability to pay child support, in violation of Turner V Rogers and fundamental due process rights.
- Defendant is indigent, and was unrepresented at the hearing.

Accordingly, there is strong likelihood of success on appeal.

Enforcement of the order would cause irreparable harm to the Defendant, including unlawful incarceration, loss of wages, and damage to parental and constitutional rights.

Granting this stay will not unduly harm the opposing party, as this motion merely preserves the status quo while appellate review is pending, and has shown that the Respondent does not have any current financial difficulties.

Finally, the public interest strongly favors upholding constitutional due process protections in family court proceedings.

4. Requested Relief

For the reasons set forth above, Defendant respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Grant a stay of enforcement of the order dated September 2, 2025, pending resolution of the appeal;
2. Suspend any incarceration or enforcement measures,
3. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Rule 24 - Clerk's Affidavit

NOTICE

If you fail to attend, a bench warrant may be issued for your arrest.

At the hearing, your ability to pay your support is a critical issue to be determined.

Complete the attached Short Form Financial Declaration and present it to the court at your hearing. SCCA 430S - Short Form Financial Declaration is available on the South Carolina Judicial Department website at <http://www.sccourts.org/forms/pdf/SCCA430.pdf> or at the office of the Clerk of Court.

Requests to modify the support obligation will not be addressed at the contempt proceeding.

If the court determines that you have the ability to pay the support obligation and finds you to be in willful violation of the support order, you may be incarcerated for up to one year and/or fined. You will be given the opportunity to purge the contempt and avoid the incarceration/fine by certain methods to include payment of an appropriate amount of court costs and/or a payment toward your support arrearage up to the entire amount due.

If at a later time, you have failed to pay your support for an extended period of time and law enforcement is unable to locate you, a bench warrant may issue for your arrest for failing to comply with the court order. You will then be transported to court, and a hearing will be held to determine if you have the ability to pay and therefore if the failure to pay was willful. Sanctions may then be imposed as mentioned above.

Imagine watching your kids mother and their stepfather give them the best life possible with absolutely NO help from you...and still having the audacity to tell the world that they aren't shit....yeah, I'd be embarrassed too.
