Re: Jeffrey P. Cepin v. Samet Corporation
Appellate Case No. 2025-002480

Dear Mr. Cepin:

Upon reviewing your attempted corrections of your initial brief filed on May 14, 2026, the following deficiency has been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and this deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this matter will be dismissed:

- The initial brief is not accompanied by a designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal as stated in our letters dated May 1, 2026, and May 8, 2026. You filed copies of exhibits that should be included on the record on appeal rather than a list of the proposed documents. See Rule 209, SCACR. We are returning the exhibits to you without action. A designation of matter is only a list setting forth with specificity those parts of the transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials that you propose to include in the record on appeal. You can find an example of a designation of matter in Appendix C Form 14, SCACR. A copy of Form 14 is enclosed for your convenience.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
