Re: State of South Carolina v. Joseph Myers
Case No.: 2026-000672

Dear Sir or Madam:

Pursuant to Rule 240, SCACR, Appellant Joseph Myers moves for an extension of time in which to serve and file Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be included in the Record on Appeal. Appellant requests an extension of thirty (30) days to file the Initial Brief which is currently due June 1, 2026. This is the second extension request filed by Appellant.

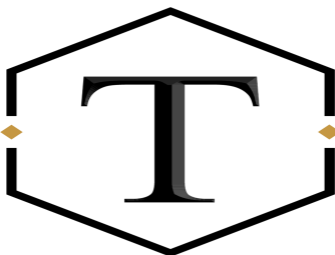

The grounds for this motion are that other impending professional matters and obligations have created a need for additional time to prepare the Initial Brief. Since the first request, Appellant's counsel has been required to appear across the state in other cases and prepare for a trial commencing May 26, 2026. These obligations have prevented Appellant from finalizing the Initial Brief. Further, Counsel for Appellant is scheduled to meet with Appellant on June 9, 2026, in order to review the filing prior to submission. The facility has been unable to accommodate Counsel's request for a legal visit with Appellant for the last few weeks and the 9th is the earliest available time the facility to accommodate the meeting. A thirty-day delay will not prejudice the rights of any of the parties. Granting this motion would require the Initial Brief to be filed with the Court no later than July 1, 2026.

For these reasons, Appellant requests an extension of the deadline for filing and serving the Initial Brief and Designation of Matter until July 1, 2026.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Adam G. Touma
