RE: Alonzo C. Jeter, III v State of South Carolina, et al
Appellate Case No. 2025-000762

Dear Honorable Clerk:

Thank you for your letter dated May 14, 2026, received on May 19, 2026.

In this letter, I am confused as to whether or not I am being required to file an additional copy of the Record on Appeal and Final Briefs in this case.

Meaning... I have previously served (1) an unbound hard copy, and an (2) electronic copy. It seems I am now being requested to provide now (1) an additional unbound hard copy of both the Record on Appeal and Final Brief as well as (2) a bound hard copy of each.

As I would remind the Court that I am a pro se litigant who is confined within the South Carolina Department of Corrections - I would also ask for the Court's reconsideration of its request.

I have no way to "bind" the Record in SCDC, and I also have no access to any colored paper for meeting the cover color specifications set forth in Rule 267 of the SCACR, nor any 50 pound weight paper, etc.

As such, I prayerfully request that an order be provided which would invoke the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense to aid me in providing this by that office's accessing the Court's C-Track system, printing the Record on Appeal and Final Brief, Binding the same, and providing these to the Court along with an electronic filing of the same.

I pray for the Court's understanding, leniency, and any further clarity and time it will provide in this regard.

Sincerely,
Alonzo C. Tetel, III

Please return a file-stamped copy of today's correspondence.
