Good morning everyone,

Attached please find the proposed order permitting Dr. Maddox to evaluate Mr. Jones cell side if required. Counsel have conferred with Mr. Vincent on the drafting of this order so it meets SCDC's needs. Please do not hesitate to let us know if you have any questions or need additional information from us.

The order is attached as a word document and a PDF. We would be happy to provide a hard copy should the Court desire one also.

Kindly,
Rosalind

Good morning,

Judge Hood approves canceling the evaluation DMH scheduled for Monday. Please ensure that the transport order is canceled as well.

Additionally, per Judge Hood, please provide a proposed order regarding Dr. Maddox's evaluation/observation at SCDC, addressing Dr. Maddox's access within the facility and the procedures for conducting her evaluation/observation at SCDC.

Thank you,

Reynolds,

We wanted to follow up about one outstanding issue in Mr. Jones' case. Since the plan is to have Dr. Maddox conduct an evaluation/observation at SCDC, is Judge Hood okay with the evaluation DMH scheduled for Monday being cancelled since Mr. Jones is unlikely to agree to be transported? We've discussed it among counsel and are all on board with that, but we just wanted to confirm that Judge Hood would be fine with that.

Rosalind and I wanted to circle back on one issue related to Mr. Jones that I don't think we expressly addressed during our Chambers meeting. We wanted to confirm that the SCDMH evaluation scheduled for Monday is being cancelled in light of the plan for Dr. Maddox to evaluate Mr. Jones in SCDC. Is that everyone's understanding?

Good morning:

I have to be perfectly honest and candid with everyone. I hope that something meaningful and practical can result from Tuesday's upcoming hearing, but I have lots of questions about where this matter stands. Thank you for recognizing that OMH will not have an easy answer for this matter. I plan to attend the hearing along with Carolyn Benzon, the general counsel for the agency. However, the agency's Director of Forensic Services, Kelly Gothard, Ph.D., will be unable to attend the hearing. She would be best suited to discuss the issues concerning performing evaluations at correctional institutions. The letter provided to Judge Hood was drafted after consultation with Dr. Gothard. Dr. Gothard is on vacation out of state and will not be back by Tuesday. As I believe you all know, Dr. Gaskins was scheduled to see Mr. Jones on April 22, 2026. Dr. Gaskins is a contracted forensics evaluator and cannot necessarily speak as a representative of the agency. Long story short, we are at a loss on supplying a representative of the agency to discuss the issues. I am informed that all other programmatic or clinical staff are either scheduled in evaluations or on leave. Someone would need to be pulled from performing evaluations in order to attend the hearing.

I am further informed that Mr. Jones has previously been evaluated in 2016 and 2019, and there were no indications of any mental illness and no psychiatric diagnoses assigned beyond substance abuse. An opinion on competency can be prepared based on past records if the patient will not cooperate and participate in any type of visit. Do we really expect that he will attend the hearing next week? Do we really expect that he will participate in the evaluation if a practitioner visits the correctional institution? And as I indicated below, because the agency is already in possession of past records, an opinion can be prepared based on a short virtual visit. But you mention below that he is not talking to anyone and you doubt he will come out of his cell for the June 1 evaluation. Even if Dr. Gaskins goes to the institution, what would be accomplished?

On top of all of these practical concerns, I have some legal concerns about the efficacy of the order for a competency evaluation in a civil PCR matter. I am not aware of the legal basis for ordering such an evaluation. The closest analogue is section 44-23-410 which deals with examinations for persons on trial for criminal offenses or civil contempt.

I'm sorry for the long-winded email, I'm just looking for some direction from the other attorneys and/or the court. The alternatives I suggested below were dismissed and the order that has been entered does not require the agency to visit the correctional institution, so I'm not sure where this leaves us. I'm wracking my brain, but I don't expect to show up at the hearing with any great ideas. There is nothing preventing Mr. Jones's attorneys from engaging a private examiner to conduct an evaluation at the institution.

Thank you.

Sincerely, Pete

Pete,

Apologies for the delayed response—I'm copying Judge Hood's law clerk and the AG's Office in so everyone stays up to speed.

We appreciate you reaching out and thinking through alternatives. After conferring with Rosalind, we think the status conference would still be the most productive path forward.

Mr. Jones has a long and well-documented history of severe mental illness, and he has refused all contact with counsel, family, and others for months. It's our understanding that he is not currently taking prescribed medication or interacting with anyone at SCDC. Given that, we have serious concerns that he will not come out of his cell for the June 1 evaluation, which makes a transport order unlikely to resolve the issue as a practical matter. For the same reasons, we do not believe he would participate in a remote evaluation, and we have additional concerns about the reliability of an entirely remote competency evaluation.

We certainly don't expect OMH to have an easy answer for how to deal with this unusual situation. But OMH is the subject-matter expert, and we think the status conference with all stakeholders is the right forum to work through it.

I'm available most of the rest of the week and would be happy to discuss or provide any additional background information about Mr. Jones.

Hello,

As you know, Chris and I have stepped into Logan's place for the interim. We're trying to wrangle all of the various matters.

As I understand this matter, the simple issue is getting a competency evaluation performed. The less simple issue is where. According to Dr. Gothard, during her tenure, OMH has never conducted a competency evaluation at a correctional institution.

Would y'all be opposed to asking Judge Hood to issue a transport order for the evaluation? Or, in the alternative, I believe OMH can conduct a remote evaluation. We would have to work out some mechanics of a remote evaluation so that confidentiality and privacy are preserved, but it is an option. Are y'all amenable to these options to possibly alleviate the need for a hearing next week?

Thank you.

Sincerely, Pete

Good afternoon,

Apologies for the double email, but I initially sent the below correspondence to Mr. Royals and received an automated response indicating he was no longer with the agency so I am resending the below correspondence to ensure it gets to the right people.

I am reaching out in regards to the ordered competency evaluation for Timothy Jones (5289). Judge Hood asked us to inquire into whether it might be possible to conduct the evaluation at SCDC and we were told by Ms. Bluemle that evaluations cannot be conducted in jail or detention centers. He asked us to reach out to your office to see if you might be able to provide an explanation for why this would not be possible. To the extent the information is helpful to you, Ms. Elliot at SCDC has informed us from their perspective they would have no issue with coordinating to have the evaluation on site should it be possible to do so.

Thank you in advance for any answers you might be able to provide. Please do not hesitate to let us know if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Kindly,
Rosalind

Good morning,

I hope you are doing well. I am reaching out to get some information at the request of Judge Hood regarding the competency evaluation of Mr. Jones. Given that Mr. Jones refused transportation for the previously ordered evaluation, we wanted to know logistically if this is something that the designated examiner might be able to conduct on site at SCDC and if he would need to be able to bring anything into an institution for the purposes of the evaluation. We are also asking SCDC about whether this would be possible on their end, but wanted to reach out and ask what might be possible. Thank you for any information you can provide to us all about this. We greatly appreciate your insight. Please let me know if you have any questions or want any additional information about this request.
